Born—To Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Catton Sept. 21, a daughter.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Scales, Monday, September 26th, a son.

The "stand patters" certainly received a heavy jar at the primaries Saturday.

This September weather has certainly been most beautiful and delightful.

F. M. Glaupe is making some decided improvements to his dwelling on Catlin street.

Thos. Glover has opened up a pool hall in the Valentine building on Burlington street.

E. C. Tripp, editor of the Kennebec Courier, was a pleasant visitor at this office Monday.

Calef Bros. have adorned their furniture emporium with two large and handsome new signs.

If you want lots on terms, fine river view—see E. C. Hurlbert, 224 Fessenden street.

G. L. Weiss is making some substantial repairs and alterations on his home on Edison street.

N. G. Turkington is erecting a handsome residence on Burr street, between Banks and Mears.

Mrs. B. L. Snow left yesterday for Seattle, where she will spend three or four weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Shaw.

Mothers' meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Gesler on Chicago street Monday afternoon at 2:30. All are invited.

Married—At the White Temple, Sept. 29, 1910, Miss Hazel M. Robinson of St. Johns and Dr. Archie P. Ingram of Hillsboro.

The dance given by the St. Johns Athletic association in the rink Saturday night was the best yet in point of attendance, and, as usual, was most delightful.

There are still a few copies left of the St. Johns booster edition of the Review. Many have been sent to people in the East. While they last, 5 cents per copy.

Chas. Bailey brought a monster apple to the Review office Monday. It was picked from the Williams & Bailey ranch in the Tualatin valley, is of the Glori Mundi variety, measures 16 inches in circumference and weighs one and one-quarter pounds.
