Feed the Turkeys. Because turkeys are good foragers will not pay to let them go without proper feeding, especially if they are wanted for early market.

Cream Separator. Another great blessing in a farm ome is the cream separator, for not only are time and labor saved, but the manity of the butter is improved and the amounts increased. When a separator is used all of the cream can be saved sweet and clean. There is no rancid cream to taste in the butter, and when once one sees the impurities which the separator removes from the milk one does not want any until it has gone through this process.

Dust Preventive. The department of agriculture has been experimenting at Washington with white waste sulphite, which is produced in the manufacture of paper, as a dust preventive.
