Local News.

Remember the K. of P. Fair next week.

Maybe you don't believe in witches. You will after you attend the W. R. C. frolic.

P. W. Hinman has returned to St. Johns after spending a month or so with friends in Michigan.

Mrs. Vinson has returned to her home on South Ivanhoe after an extended visit with relatives and friends in Montana.

Floyd Churchill has returned from a six months' visit with relatives and friends in Michigan. He reports a most enjoyable visit.

A son of E. Wymore was killed Saturday by an elevator falling upon his head. Death was instantaneous. Funeral took place Tuesday.

Miss Mabel McLean, a pleasant young lady from Centuria, Wisconsin, is serving as deputy at the postoffice. She is a sister of E. W. McLean.

Silas Turner has sold his residence and butcher shop on Fessenden street and has departed, we understand, for his former home in Chicago.

Oswald West and Col. Bob Miller will address the public at Bickner hall Thursday evening next at 8 o'clock. A large crowd should be in attendance.

Remember the K. of P. fair next week. It promises to be the greatest event ever pulled off in St. Johns. There will be something of unusual interest every evening.

J. N. Davis and J. S. Crawford of Wahoo, Nebr., have been spending a few days in St. Johns. The former is a brother of ex-Councilman J. W. Davis and Mrs. C. L. Stevens of this city.

On account of their rapidly increasing business, the St. Johns Laundry has increased its drying capacity considerably. This will enable them to handle their work with greater celerity and dispatch.

Witches! Witches! Come and see the witches at the W. R. C. Hall on Friday and have your fortune told by a witch, a real true seventh daughter of a seventh daughter, who for a small sum will reveal all the secrets of your life.

See F. W. Valentine for real estate and insurance. 204 N. Jersey.

Miss Lillian S. Perkins, teacher of vocal music and elocution. 402 Gresham, corner Charleston.

For sale cheap—Two tents, both in first-class condition and all complete; sizes, 9x12 and 12x16. Chas. Bredeson.

I have customers to buy houses and lots on installments. What have you to list?—S. L. Dobie, 110 N. Jersey street.

For Sale—Household articles. Call at 415 West Burlington street between 1 and 4 o'clock Monday. GEO. J. PERKINS.

Wanted to exchange—Forty acres of good land near Kelso, Wash., for St. Johns property. A. J. Kubus, Mansfield's barber shop.

Wanted—To let a contract for cutting 1000 cords of body fir wood near electric station. See E. C. Hurlbert, 224 Fessenden street, St. Johns.
