Leo Root has purchased a house and lot on North Ivanhoe.

J. A. Cole and family have removed to Centralia, Wash.

Thos. Waite has purchased a house and lot in the North End.

Willis Moxon and family have departed for Southern Oregon, where they will take up a homestead.

H. Ratzlaff has traded a 90-acre farm for a house and two lots in St. Johns, which were owned by Fred Schneider.

Mrs. W. W. Holcomb has returned to her home here after an extended visit in San Francisco and other California cities.

The photo of the North Bank Pharmacy's sweet pea exhibit is being extensively used by Rieger & Co. of San Francisco for advertising purposes.

At this season of the year it is well enough for the dear woman to know that the best way to make jelly keep is to hide it where the "kids" can't find it.

P. C. Stroud, a bright young attorney from Portage, Wis., was a guest of his former townsman, F. P. Drinker, this week. Mr. Stroud is looking for a suitable location in this western country.

Portland Y. M. C. A. is teaching apple culture to those interested in the science. Classes will be held throughout the winter and lectures will be delivered by experts. The work is intensely practical and will be productive of good results.

The frost is on the pumpkin, and the fatter will soon be in the shock. The squeal of the fat porker will soon be heard in the land, and then will come buckwheat cakes, sausage, liverwort, scrapple, mince pies, sauer-kraut and fat pork, and with a wren like that, who in the dickens will care or pine for the good old summertime?—Exchange.

Are you using printed back envelopes? If not, why not?

"De Moon in de Picture" was presented by the Willumbia Theatrical troupe before a crowded house at the Princess theatre Wednesday night. All the actors performed their parts exceedingly well and the audience was more than satisfied.

Mrs. Jeff Nye, well known to many of our people, had the misfortune to trip upon a telephone wire while at Long Beach recently. An end of the wire sprang up and struck her in the left eye. Upon investigation at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, it was found necessary to remove the optic, and the operation was performed this week.

Old Capt. McIntire the real estate man, has agreed to ride Geo. M. Hall, the barber, from Burlington street to the postoffice and back in the event of Bowerman's election. On the other hand Mr. Hall has agreed to give Mr. McIntire the same pleasure trip if West is elected. The St. Johns band will be engaged in either event to follow the "turnout." As the election has turned out there seems to be no other way than to "let George do it."

We Make Suits and Overcoats

That fit, that have style, that wear, that are right in those things that mark quality tailoring.

Four years in St. Johns has fully established our reputation for high-class work. We are after the business men's trade; we want it, and we propose to give the kind of service that will keep it. Our stock of woolsens, both imported and domestic, is of the highest class. We show no shoddy fabrics and we turn out no shoddy work. We make splendid suits and overcoats at

A Bad State of Affairs

The deplorable condition of Jersey street in which the prevailing storm has forced the contractors to leave it, would tend, ordinarily, to reduce our regular volume of business to a minimum, but disagreeable and inconvenient as the going is on our side of the street, we are actually doing more business than under normal conditions simply because we are cutting deeper than ever into the regular prices of drugs, medicines and sundry articles. Get the habit of perusing our weekly cut-rate list and you will become one of our steady customers.
