Three Stores---Portland -- St. Johns -- Vancouver

Local News.

Mr. G. E. Bullock, of Elmira, N. Y., made a short visit at the home of J. N. Keeler.

Charley Moy has opened up a restaurant in the Central hotel building on Philadelphia street.

The St. Johns ferry is once more in commission, after a layoff for repairs, of several weeks. Its patrons are happy in consequence.

Schools closed Wednesday in the Central school until next Monday because of a break in the electric motor operating the heating and ventilating system of the building.

L. R. Glascoe, of Hastings, Mich., is the guest of A. C. Gesler. Mr. Glascoe comes from Mr. Gesler's home town and will move to Portland with his family, where he has employment with Calef Bros.

The contractors on the Burlington street sidewalk seem to care little for the elements. They work right along in sunshine and rain, while contracts are held up on other streets until the weather settles.

St. Andrew's Episcopal—1554 Portsmouth avenue, Portsmouth, Sunday, Feb. 19, Sunday school, 10 a. m., morning service and sermon by Rt. Rev. Bishop Scadding; evening service and sermon by resident minister.

Steps of a more strenuous nature should be taken toward having Dawson street improved. The matter is lying in dormant state at present. If there are obstructions to be overcome, why not start to remove them at once?

The Eagles gave an old-fashioned eastern ball in their hall Tuesday night. A fair attendance was present and the "square" dances were greatly enjoyed by the participants. Excellent music was rendered, and if any one failed to enjoy the occasion it was entirely their own fault.

The ladies of St. Johns held a delightful Valentine ball in the Rink Tuesday night. The largest crowd of the season was in attendance, and the rink was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Weinberger orchestra furnished the music in its usual pleasing style.

R. R. Churchill met with a rather bad mishap Monday evening. He and a friend intended to get on a car at St. Johns, and as Ross was about to follow his friend into the car, it started to move, and Ross, unprepared for the move, had his foot so badly twisted that he was later taken to the Good Samaritan hospital for treatment.

Through the agency of McKinney & Davis during the past week, Mr. C. Ewing of Eugene bought a house and lot in Point View, and Mr. Lindley of the same place bought the new residence of Mr. McKinney & Davis. This hustling realty firm has made sales aggregating nearly $8000 so far this month with a number of others on the anxious seat.

The Lauthers Case

The case of trespass against W. S. Lauthers has been postponed indefinitely. Mr. Lauthers was charged with trespassing upon Bradford street in an attempt to construct a sidetrack to his warehouse. It is claimed that the affair came about through a misunderstanding. Mr. Lauthers notified the railroad company of the fact after the proposed franchise had passed first reading and told them to get in readiness to construct the sidetrack, as he believed the franchise would pass without delay. When the council tabled the matter indefinitely, Mr. Lauthers failed to notify the company of the fact, with the result that a gang of men were put to work by the company on the track, believing everything would be satisfactory. The chief of police, however, called a halt before much progress had been made.

Some of the boys of the Philo Christo class of the Evangelical Sunday school are busy this week finishing our class room, and the basement of the church. They are a jolly bunch of fellows, too. Of course, the girls will do their part later on. We will be glad to have any young people, who have no church home come into our Sunday school class, and get acquainted with our young people. They are hard to beat.—Reporter. Subscribe for the Telegram—best evening paper on the coast. See Ed Stockton.
