The people of Ohio are much interested in Oregon as proved by the fact 3000 people visited the Great Northern's car at the National Corn show in Columbus, Ohio, in one day.

Col. E. Hofer, the irrepressible, has thrown up the sponge and as he tersely expressed it, has "turned the business over to the kid." Col. Hofer has been a factor in both politics and journalism in Oregon for a quarter of a century and it was a great surprise to his many friends when he signed a big "30," the telegrapher's signal that is the end, and told them that he was out of it and that his son succeeds him on the editorial tripod. Here's hoping the son will make as good as his illustrious sire, and to the indomitable Colonel our worst wish is that he may "Requiescat in pace."

Preach the gospel of St. Johns.

For Rent—A large six room house, newly kalsomined, close in, on South Jersey street; $12 a month. Call Columbia 297. 9tf

The St. Johns W. O. W. went to Vancouver 25 strong Wednesday to a big "do-in" of the lodge, and had a ga-lorious time, but coming back the boat went "fooy" and held the frisky Woodmen until the last car had gone and the boys had to travel home on a tie pass.

The Young Ladies class of the Christian Sunday school gave the Young Men's class a delightful entertainment at the home of Miss Flora McNiven on Hartman street last Saturday evening. There were about 35 present and they must have had a jolly time, for they had not been able to smooth all the smiles out of their faces yet the next morning at Sunday school.

Washington's birthday has been set apart as rose planting day on the peninsula. There were hundreds of children and others who observed the day in this manner while their "sisters, their cousins and their aunts" in the eastern states were shivering around their fires with zero weather and cannot plant their roses for a month or two yet.
