A. B. LINDBOE

111 West Burlington Street

Mr. B. L. Snow died at her home at 705 East Charleston street Saturday, March 25, 1911, aged 66 years. She had been confined to her bed for six weeks preceding her death with internal cancer. She was born in Ohio, and came to St. Johns from Kansas six years ago; was married to Capt. B. L. Snow 49 1/2 years ago. A husband, one daughter, Mrs. Bird Shaw, of Seattle and one granddaughter, Mrs. Zoe Wetzel of this city, survive her. Funeral services were held at the home Monday morning at 10 o'clock Rev. C. P. Gates officiating. Interment took place in the Rose City cemetery. The deceased was possessed of many friends, who deeply regret her death.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams have returned from Long Beach, Cal., where they have been spending the winter. Mr. Williams states that the rain has been quite heavy there recently, and that it feels particularly good to be back once more in good, old Oregon.

W. W. Windle, who is now engaged in looking after the streets of St. Johns, has been making many and various improvements upon same. "Billy" would be a good man to appoint as sewer inspector.

The old Review office has been moved by its owner, M. L. Holbrook, to the corner of John and Jersey, and will be fitted up for business purposes.

Calef Bros. have been awarded the contract for seating the new high school building. This enterprising business firm usually gets contracts when it goes after them, in spite of Portland competition.

O. E. Leonard has removed his real estate office from Richmond street to corner of Richmond and Jersey. This removes the last impediment to the improvement of Richmond street connecting with Jersey.

Pascal Hill was arrested on a charge of violating the corrupt practices act this morning. His trial will take place at Judge Downs' court tomorrow. W. S. Baisey has brought the charge. From a careful perusal of the act we cannot find that Mr. Hill has in any way violated same, and believe the case will be dismissed. His plea is "not guilty."
