The carnival will be given here under the auspices of Knights of Pythias. A queen of the carnival will be selected by vote, ballot boxes being placed in several of the leading stores. Misses Schmaling, Fassett and Edlefsen have been announced as candidates with more to follow. A $50 diamond brooch will be awarded to the winner. All business men are requested to decorate with lodge colors—red, yellow and blue. More particulars next week. In the meantime save your pennies.

John N. Edlefsen has tendered his resignation as assistant cashier of the Peninsula Bank, to take effect May 1st. He will devote his time thereafter to the Edlefsen Fuel Co. in which he is interested. During his five years' connection with the bank John has made innumerable friends by his courteous treatment, accommodating ways, careful business methods and ability. His good-natured countenance will be greatly missed by the patrons of that institution. He will be succeeded by S. L. Dobie, the popular real estate man and erstwhile councilman. Mr. Dobie is splendidly fitted for this position, and a better selection could not be made to fill the vacancy.

Reception for Rev. Gates

A reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Gates at the home of John Poff on East Burlington street on Tuesday evening. About 100 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gates were present to express regard for them and good wishes for their future, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

A very interesting and well rendered program was given, which was opened by E. L. Perkins, followed by Mrs. Viola Campbell, both of whom rendered solos which called forth hearty encores.

The Boy Scouts, under the direction of Scoutmaster Byerlee, paid their respects to their departing friend by marching in and giving him the full military salute, to which Rev. Gates responded with a short, impressive talk to the youthful scouts.

Rev. Sandifer gave a very interesting address, which was followed by trombone solo by Dick Perrine, accompanied on the piano by Miss Georgia Perrine. Mr. Clarke, Arthur Clarke and E. L. Perkins rendered a trio that brought a round encore. Prof. Boyd addressed the pastor and wife with well chosen words and Mrs. J. N. Koeler sang two songs in a delightful manner.

Mrs. Hall then presented Rev. Gates with a purse containing $11, and a handsome Bible with flexible binding; and to Mrs. Gates she gave a handsome set of silver spoons. Mrs. Hall's presentation address in behalf of the members of the church was eloquent with expressions of the strong attachment existing between pastor and people, which was so touchingly responded to by Rev. Gates that it caused many eyes to fill with tears.

Members of the Philo Christo class then sang a chorus they use during revival services, and the guests all marched by and gave the pastor and his wife a farewell hand clasp. Mrs. Hall then closed the program, reciting in her inimitable manner a poem retouched to suit the occasion, entitled: "Conference Chicken," and to the encore responded with the "Enigrant's Lament on Stewed Prunes" which almost brought the tears again, this time from laughter. Delicious cake and coffee was then served, followed by an hour of social converse.

City Officials Installed

The installation of the new city officials Monday evening was enacted in a quiet manner. The old members turned over the reins with a sigh of relief and the new members cheerfully assumed the burden cast down by their predecessors. No speeches were indulged in, but hearty congratulations (or condolences, as one might view it) were extended by the old to the new. After the oath of office had been taken all around the board, the election of a president of council was called for by the new mayor, G. L. Pereine nominated F. W. Valentine and Pascal Hill nominated A. A. Muck as candidates to serve in this capacity; Chas. Bredeson then made a motion which carried that the nominations close. Upon vote Mr. Valentine received two votes and Mr. Muck four, the latter not voting. Mayor Couch then appointed his standing committees, as follows:

Streets and docks—J. W. Davis, F. W. Valentine, A. A. Muck. License—P. Hill, A. A. Muck, Charles Bredeson.

Water and light—Charles Bredeson, J. W. Davis, G. L. Perrine. Buildings and grounds—G. L. Perrine, Charles Bredeson, B. Frank Horsman.
