There will be a regular meeting of Doric Lodge No. 132 A. F. & A. M. Wednesday evening May 3, in I.O.O. F. hall.—C. O. Rogers, Sec.

Mrs. Alice Stucker of Lebanon greeted her many friends here the first of the week. She states that times are a little slow in her new location.

Any one desiring the services of competent man to work in the garden or about the premises generally leave word at this office. Wages $2 per day.

Rev. G. R. Stover, formerly at Hillsboro, is the new pastor of the United Evangelical church, having moved into the parsonage during the past week.

Morning service at the Evangelical church by the pastor, subject: "A call to the work." Evening service by Bishop W. H. Fonlke, D. D., of Harrisburg, Pa.

Remember the dancing party to be given by the ladies of the Catholic church in the rink next Tuesday evening. It will be one of the most swell events of the year.

M. T. Swan, with a force of men and teams, is completing the improvement of Richmond street to connect with Jersey street. This work has been "holding fire" so long that folks in that neighborhood had almost given up hope of ever getting it accomplished.

A cheap and all sufficient drunk may be obtained on the whirligigs at the merry-go-round for 5 cents. The results are more satisfactory than the first chew of tobacco. It has the lasting qualities. All you need is to shake your head the next morning and you are off again. Has sea sickness laid in the shade. Try it once and if the results are not fully satisfactory buck it again, and there you are.

For Sale Cheap—Household furniture—310 St. Johns ave. 24p2

All owners of dogs are hereby notified to pay license on the same at the city hall without delay. A word to the wise is sufficient.—R. McKinney, Chief of Police.

The Fraternal Brotherhood ball team journeyed to Arleta on the 23d and won their third straight victory by defeating the club of that place by the score of 7 to 6. Stiglich and Poff were both credited with home runs.

L. Harding has greatly improved the appearance of his confectionery store, the old Simmons stand, by lowering the building and taking out the partition. He now has more room for goods and carries the best of everything in his line: fruits, candies, cigars, ice cream, etc.

R. R. Churchill, after being confined to the hospital for several months owing to injuries received by being thrown down as he was about to board a trolley car, is able to hobble about again with the aid of a crutch. The injuries to his hip and leg were much more serious than at first anticipated.

Mr. Schelter in the French block is entertaining one of Job's comforters, and appears to place a very high estimate upon it. Just try to place your arm affectionately about his neck and see what funny faces he will make at you. Don't do it, though, unless you are a good sprinter, for you may want to make a quick getaway.

Time to Change The Winter Suit

And it should be replaced with one of OUR MADE TO YOUR MEASURE suits. Which will insure you best in style, fit and workmanship.

Take Care of Yourself in Time

Kidney weakness is the forerunner of two dangerous diseases—Rheumatism and Bright's Disease.

It takes but little to bring this about

The weakness, slight at first is usually thought insignificant and therefore neglected. To avoid serious complications, treatment should start with the first hint of trouble—

NYAL'S KIDNEY PILLS

should always be kept handy, ready for use

A pill or two now and then insures perfect freedom from kidney disorders.

Worth much more—but only 50 cents the Box
