Women Are Martyrs

Woman is her own worst enemy—seldom does she make allowances for herself. Self-sacrifice with her is persistent—in fact it is penitential and as a consequence she is seldom both healthy and happy.

Everyone's health must be looked after--all but her own. In her own mind she come last--always

No matter how strong her constitution she must eventually give way under the strain—the climax comes in complete collapse. Careful and constant attention to details in the matter of her own health is imperative—the delicate functional organs must perform their duty with unceasing regularity, the blood must be kept pure, it must nourish every tissue of her body, and the nerves kept proof against irritation.

Considering that it's only a matter of a few seconds each day—three or four doses of

Sleep an Hour Later in the Morning

Ever had to get up before six
Cold winter mornings dark as styx
The kitchen fire to build and fix;
Then have the coal fire make you wait
For breakfast until almost eight
Making your day's work an hour late?

With a gas range, women's best friend,
There's no kindling to make, no fire to tend,
All worrying over breakfast is at an end;
You can sleep right up to 6:45, thank heaven,
Have breakfast ready on the dot at seven,
Finishing the day's work long before eleven.

It's Gas that Cooks the Food that Feeds the Family that Makes the Home
