N. J. Bailey has received a large contract from a Portland firm for putting the finishing touches on a quantity of hard wood.

"Dot leedle German band" made its appearance on the streets Monday afternoon and gathered in a few marks from our citizens and enough lager to keep their throats moist from the saloons.

The fire laddies desire to publicly thank Mrs. J. C. Scott and Miss Nellie Brown for presentation of very handsome bouquets of roses at their meeting Monday night. They were much appreciated.

P. T. Hanson presented the editor with the handsomest bouquet of roses he has yet seen this year yesterday. They were grown in his lawn and the gift was highly appreciated by the scribe.

The proposed Fourth of July celebration to be held by the Eagles is declared off. The Business Men's association did not favor the project, believing a celebration to be more harmful than beneficial to the city. Therefore from present prospects there will be "nothing doing" out of the ordinary on July 4th in St. Johns this year.

It is worse than useless to take any medicines internally for muscular or chronic rheumatism. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

The monument to James John is said to be sadly neglected, and was not even adorned with a flower on Memorial day.

The annual Rose Carnival is on in full blast this week. The crowds are immense, the attractions par excellence and roses in evidence by the car load. The carnival is more popular than ever, and strangers from all parts of the world are on hand to witness the event and the greatness of the Rose City.

A permanent committee to care for the grave of their benefactor, James John, composed of high school students, renewed as the members graduate or leave the school would be a fitting tribute to that warm-hearted old man who showed his love for the children by his generous donation. Memorial day should see his grave covered with flowers. He deserves it.
