George J. Hughes, a St. Johns teamster, was badly injured by the slipping of a load of baled hay Friday afternoon of last week. He was thrown from the wagon striking on his head and shoulders, the heavy bales of hay falling on him and literally forcing him into the mud. Fellow workmen immediately removed him to his home on South Hayes street, and medical aid was summoned. While not in any danger, Mr. Hughes will be confined to the house for some time, his body being one mass of bruises.

of wood on the place, half mile from ance in nine years. H. S. Hewitt, 1124 South Gresham street.

Unnumbered wild geese flew over this city Sunday, just high enough not to be discernible through the fog. The noise they made in their flight left no doubt of their being in large numbers. Several sportsmen shot a few on Oregon slough, where they came close to earth. Arthur Anson succeeded in killing three large fat fellows with a 22 calibre rifle, while Earl Scrimsher shot two with a 22 calibre revolver. All that was necessary was to fire up in the air as a flock passed over and await results. A gun loaded with blackshot would have done much carnage.

Here is a list of Patent Medicines for which we have were shown no mercy. We almost cut their price in two. They will hardly be able to survive the shock.

The public is invited to take advantage of them in their crippled condition:
