W. C. Hamlett of Maryland has moved to St. Johns, taking up his residence with his family in the Satterlee residence. Mr. Hamlett says he is the forerunner of a number of Marylandites to follow, providing his report on conditions in general are satisfactory. The people of the Eastern states, he says, are greatly wrought up over this Western country, and are particularly anxious to secure all data relative to it possible. So far, Mr. Hamlett is well pleased with what he has seen of St. Johns and vicinity.
