For the first time in its history the famous battleship Oregon is to visit its own state. During the Elks reunion, in July, the historic old fighting ship will be brought to Portland harbor, where it will be much admired by all loyal Oregonians.

Timothy Brownhill has started a paper at Kenton, under the title of Peninsula Herald. Timothy is one of the most versatile men in the state in the country newspaper game, and will no doubt give that rapidly growing section a newspaper that it may feel proud of.

The selection of Roy Wilcox as Councilman of the Second Ward to succeed J. E. Jennings, resigned, was a good one. Mr. Wilcox possesses numerous friends, has resided in St. Johns for a number of years and is familiar with the city's needs and requirements.

Governor West has declared war against unlawful practices at the different road places. He has the pluck to carry out the program to the limit. The road houses, according to complaints, have become breeding houses for all manner of crime.

It may be that the American people will some day realize what a gigantic farce the delegate system of nominating presidents is getting to be. The affair at Chicago last week gave good illustration of what can be expected from this system.

One could not help but wonder, as he viewed the beautiful battleship, Maryland, recently lying in the Portland harbor, and costing a million or more dollars, why in this enlightened age it was necessary to construct such engines of war, and maintain in idleness and uselessness thousands of marines.

Stories of Success

H. GORDON SELFRIDGE

In Oshkosh, Wisconsin, was reared a boy destined to revolutionize merchandising in the largest English-speaking city in the world. In 14 years he rose from clerk, floorwalker and department buyer to general manager and partner in Marshall Field & Co., Chicago, while the great Selfridge store in London today occupies the area of a city block.

Mr. Selfridge is a merchant of the foremost rank, and goes to infinite pains in getting right men for the right jobs.
