If you want prompt delivery of wood, call Cochran-Nutting & Co. Phone Col. 554. 415 So. Hayes street. 29f.

Eighty additional boxes have been added to the equipment at the postoffice to supply an increasing demand for postoffice boxes.

O. P. Wolcott has had his store building removed from Charleston street to Jersey street, on the same lot. This gives the building greater prominence than heretofore.

J. H. Canright brought a seven-year locust to this office last Friday. It seems that locusts are due this year, and the one Mr. Canright had was likely a forerunner of more to follow.

A brand new baby girl arrived at the home of Banker J. N. Edlefsen bright and early Sunday morning. This is the second arrival in the Edlefsen home, the first being a boy.

J. E. Powell of 106 Scott avenue is the proud possessor of a three-legged chicken, with six toes on the third leg. The extra pedal does not seem to incommode the fowl in the least.

Methodist Church.—Theme 11 a. m., "Enduring Temptation." 8 p. m., "The High Calling." Sunday school, 10 a. m.; Epworth League, 7:15 p. m. All are welcome.

For Sale and Exchange—Five-room house, lot 50x126½, 1 block from car line, 3 blocks from Jersey street. Will take $200 cash and two good lots up to $870. Call or write Roy Turrell, 619 Chapel street, St. Johns.

Walter Goss, manager of the Multnomah Sand & Gravel Co., is making great preparations for putting the old brick yard at Cedar Park in good working order. New machinery is being installed and everything is being placed in readiness to do business on a scale greater than ever before. The operation of this plant will mean the employment of a number of men.

Portland is ablaze with lights and streaming banners of purple and white this week in honor of the grand reunion of the Elks. Thousands of visitors from all of the country are there, and to many of the delegates, this is their first introduction to the Pacific Coast. Oregon lodges are co-operating heartily to welcome their visiting brothers from the Eastern States.

N. Stefler and H. W. Scott of Astoria took in the attractions here the first of the week.

William Leeds of Eastern Oregon, and an owner of St. Johns realty, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Lost—Gold K. of P. charm; letters F. C. B. on either side. Finder please leave at Bonham & Currier's store and receive reward.—D. F. Horsman.

The city dailies did their full share in freely advertising the Sweet Pea Show, Industrial Exhibit and Regatta, and the same is duly appreciated by our citizens.

Cap Snow has returned from an extended visit in Eastern cities. He attended the Chicago convention, but disclaims having any hand in the disturbance that arose at the convention.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out in the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

For Sale—Two fresh cows, young and gentle, rich milk—619 East John street. 37p.

Wisconsin picnic at Estacada July 14, one fare, 50c round trip. Don't miss it. Train leaves First and Alder 8:45 a. m.

Three Fine Lots For Sale.—40x100 at the head of Edison street, all improved. Only $375 each. Easy terms. Apply soon to J. H. Fletcher, 823 Willamette boulevard.

Surveys at the mouth of the Columbia river show that the entrance is growing deeper. The area of deep water growing apparently by the action of the river current, which, directed by the jetty, is scouring out the channel to a greater depth. Steadily improved conditions are looked for at the mouth of the river, particularly as work on the north jetty progresses.

J. D. Hardy was unlucky enough to be separated from his pocketbook containing almost four dollars in silver, at the regatta Tuesday afternoon. He is inclined to the belief that a short, heavy set woman who seemed to be crowding him unduly along the railing at the city dock, surreptitiously obtained possession of the same. No other pick-pocketing has been reported.

Local News.

Allen Murray of Catlin, Wash., spent last week with his son, Edgar, on East Richmond street.

The Regal Range on sale at the Peninsula Hardware is a bargain at $36.00. See it at once.

C. C. Woodhouse, after spending several months here, has returned to his home at Republic, Wash.

A fine new baby boy arrived at the home of Edwin Root last week, in time to take in the Sweet Pea Show and other attractions.

The ballot this fall will be a regular blanket sheet nine feet long. The initiative and referendum is certainly being worked with a vengeance.

Action toward having the city dock utilized or a sidetrack constructed seems to lag or remain dormant. The Commercial club has here an opportunity to expend its energies.

First Christian Science Society.—Sundays 11 a. m., Wednesdays at 8 p. m. Reading room open on Tuesday and Saturday from 2 to 4 p. m. All cordially invited to the services and reading room. Subject Sunday: "Sacrament."

One of the prettiest and daintiest decorations in St. Johns was the Gilmore barber shop on Philadelphia street. The windows were painted and designed by Mrs. Gilmore, wife of the proprietor, proving herself an artist of no mean ability.

Miss Pearl Doyle, an employe of the woolen mills, we understand, was painfully injured in an automobile runaway near Stayton one evening last week. She had been visiting her sister-in-law at Stayton, and was starting on her way to St. Johns when the accident occurred. Her injuries will prevent her return for several weeks.

Charlton S. Currin has associated with his brother, C. C. Currin, the popular druggist and proprietor of the North Bank Pharmacy, and has become a permanent resident and business man of St. Johns. Mr. Currin is a graduate of O. A. C., and has been manager of the Star Drug Co. at Klamath Falls for the past five years. Currin Bros. will make an energetic, enterprising and active team in the drug business.

Mr. C. G. Carhart and family have gone to San Diego, Cal., where they will remain indefinitely.

Buy it now. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by all dealers.

Charles O'Brien, an old friend and neighbor of the editor of Clearfield, Penna., spent a few hours in the city Monday. He is greatly pleased with Portland and vicinity and believes that if Eastern people realized the wonderful resources and attractions of the Northwest there would be few people remaining in the East.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For Sale by all dealers.

Adam Kaemlein, who for several years was engaged in the barbering business in St. Johns, and who has numerous friends here, came up from Yreka, Calif., to attend the Sweet Pea Show. Adam has traveled about considerable since leaving this city, but says one does not realize what a really good place St. Johns is until he travels around a lot. He hasn't seen any place as good. He will remain here for several days, and perhaps permanently.

Preach the gospel of St. Johns.

Work for a Greater St. Johns.

Satisfaction, is the word—Gilmore, the Barber.

Meat eaters, according to a college professor, are more active than vegetarians. Possibly it is because the prices make the meat eaters hustle more to get the price.

For Sale—Modern 7-room house and lot 50x100, corner Richmond and Hayes, at a fine bargain. Price $3000, on very easy terms. For particulars call at the Review office. —30f.

Wall paper in new and artistic designs is now on sale at the Peninsula Hardware Co. Prices range from eight to 25 cents per double roll. Selection may be made from 50 or more different patterns.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and epidemic. For sale by all dealers.

Get an electric head treatment or massage at Gilmore's Barber Shop. Typewriter ribbons for sale at this office; 50 cents each.

Picture framing done at Portland prices at H. F. Clark's, the furniture man.

For Rent.—Store room. Best location in St. Johns. Right where the car stops. For particulars see F. A. Rice at the city hall. 22f.

For Sale—Six lots, all extra size, between Tyler and Polk streets, improvements in, can sell cheap. Terms, $10 cash, balance $10 per month, 7 per cent interest. Best residence district.—McKinney & Davis. 16f.

For Sale—6½ acres fine level land, good soil, small house, well and pump, stable, 13 stalls; 1½ miles from city limits, Vancouver, Wash. Price, $1150. Also 20 acres, 15 level land, some stumps, no brush, seven miles from Astoria. Does not overflow. Price for a few days, $750. See J. Webster, St. Johns, Oregon.

Phonograph Special

Seldom will you have the opportunity of buying a standard phonograph as the Columbia, Victor or Edison at less than the regular retail price, but in order to reduce our stock of talking machines, we have secured permission from the company to sell at a very low price a limited number of machines.

If you have the faintest idea of buying a phonograph, do not miss this opportunity of saving money.

Here they are at prices no Portland store ever made you:

- 2 Columbia Disc Machines, regular $12.50 at $ 8.00
- 1 " Cylinder " " 25.00 at 15.00
- 1 " " " " 35.00 at 21.00
- 1 " Disc " " 17.50 at 12.50
- 1 " large concert machine with oak wood horn, reg. 60.00 at 50.00
- 1 Second hand Victor machine, reg. 15.00 at 5.00
- A stock of 2 and 4 minute records closing out at 21 and 30 cents.

Remember we are giving away a phonograph each month to the person holding the lucky number. A number entitling holder to one chance with each 25c purchase.

Proposals for Street Work

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Recorder of the City of St. Johns until July 30, 1912, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the improvement of Fessenden street from the northerly line of Jersey street to the northerly line of Smith avenue, in the manner provided by ordinance No. 491, subject to the provisions of the charter and ordinances of the City of St. Johns, and the estimate of the city engineer, on file.

Engineer's estimate is $6,164.63. Bids must be strictly in accordance with printed blanks, which will be furnished on application at the office of the Recorder of the City of St. Johns. And said improvement must be completed on or before 60 days from date of the last publication of notice of proposals of said work.

No proposals or bids will be considered unless accompanied by a certified check payable to the order of the Mayor of the City of St. Johns, certified by a responsible bank for an amount equal to ten per cent. of the aggregate proposal. The right to reject any and all bids is hereby reserved.

By order of the City Council, F. A. RICE, Recorder.

Published in the St. Johns Review on July 12, 19 and 26, 1912.

How is Your Title?

Have your abstracts made, continued or examined at the Peninsula Title, Abstract and Realty Co' Accurate work. Reasonable fees. H. Henderson, manager, 208 North Jersey, McDonald building.

NOTICE OF Proposed Assessment

Notice is hereby given that apportionment of the cost of improving Myers street from the northerly line of Fessenden street to southerly line of Thompson street, total cost is $2,228.73, has been apportioned and is on file in the office of the undersigned, subject to examination.

Assessment district extends back to the center of lots, blocks or tracts of land abutting on said street as provided by the city charter and resolutions. Remonstrances against said apportionment may be made in writing and filed with the undersigned until 5 o'clock P. M. July 29, 1912.

F. A. RICE, Recorder.
