

A Wish

I'd like to sneak away today
Off yonder where the willows sway,
And loaf beside a little stream
Where long ago I used to dream.
Bare-footed I would like to be—
A pole cut from a hickory tree,
A line of knotted string, and bait
I dug beyond the garden gate,
I'd like to take along, the way
I did in golden yesterday.

But that's a wish I'll never get—
It's buried in the past, and yet,
Somehow my rod of split bamboo,
My Shakespeare reel and tackle new
And artificial minnows fine,
The splendid silk and linen line
Set me to wishing I could know
Once more the joys of long ago,
The charms of that old fishing hole,
When I had but a hickory pole.

I'm starting out at break of day
To fish out in yonder bay,
With costly tackle, shining bright,
But I shall miss the old delight;
And I shall wish that I could be
That youngster, underneath the tree,
That bare of head, bare-footed lad,
Who only home-made tackle had,
And live my yesterdays again,
Because I used to catch 'em then.

Thirteenth Wednesday Special

Wednesday, July 17th

The Motor Races, Industrial Exhibits and Sweet Pea Show are now part of St. Johns' history. In our opinion it was a great success. We feel that St. Johns should now make an annual affair of the Sweet Pea Carnival at least. But we hope that by some wise planning and expended energy that a switch to the Dock by this time in 1913 will compel us to go elsewhere with the Sweet Peas. We will do our part.

This month's Butterick Patterns are 10¢ and 15¢—none higher.

Next Wednesday, July 24th, the Grocers have their picnic at Bonneville. We will close our store and go. So there will be NO WEDNESDAY SPECIAL ON THAT DAY.

FOR THAT REASON, WE WILL CUT THE PRICE ON MORE ARTICLES FOR THIS WEEK'S SALE

Bed Rock Merchandising

OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The primary purpose of every good store is to sell the best possible merchandise in such a way, and at such a price, as to make for its own profit and the satisfaction of the customer.

No store can give away goods continually without a skimping of quality and service. But a live store can frequently obtain really good merchandise that it can offer at below regular prices.

Adopting for our store policy the fundamentals of good merchandising---quality and service---we have consistently aimed to broaden our scope so as to meet the needs of all people.

The result is a store organization dominated throughout by a spirit of fair play to customer and employe, and offering
