From far Canada comes a call for Pendleton's Cowboy band to appear at a Wild West show at Calgary, Alberta, in the early September. The fame of this organization has spread and the Pendleton musicians will go to Calgary taking along two cars of horses and equipment.

A hen is not supposed to have much common sense or tact, but every time she lays an egg she cackles forth the fact. A rooster hasn't got a lot of intellect to show, but none the less most roosters have got sense enough to crow. But man, the greatest masterpiece that nature could devise, will often stop and hesitate before he'll advertise.

Flax culture in Oregon is making progress. Seed has been distributed by the Portland Linseed Oil company and many favorable replies have been received from farmers who have been successful in growing excellent flax. The plant thrives in this state, producing fine, long fibre and much seed.

The Library

Open Hours: 1:00 to 5:30 and 7:00 to 9:30 p. m. Sundays: 2:30 to 5:30

The library is one of the coolest places in town on these warm days.

The newly painted walls and floor add much to the appearance of the room and make it light as well.

Come in and look over the map showing the invasion of North America by foreign authors.

A box of new books is on the way.

Did you enjoy the "Broad Highway," and the "Money Moon," by Jeffery Farnol? The same author has a new novel running in McClure's. You can get it at the library.

Those of you who garden, have you in the spring when you are hard at work at your flower beds and see your neighbor's perennial bloom without a bit of effort on the owner's part—felt a bit nervous? And have you gazed in despair at the price lists of perennial plants in the catalogues? Now is the time to start perennials from the seed for next year and the years after. The Garden Magazine tells you just how to go about it in an article entitled: "Perennials Everybody Can Grow From Seed.—A dozen desirable species that you can surely have in flower next year from seed sown now." There is also an interesting article on "Annals for Winter Bloom Indoors."

Any one who wishes to get a clear and comprehensive idea of present day socialism and wishes to get it without too hard work, will do well to read the series of papers by Samuel P. Orth now running in World's Work on the World-wide Speech of Socialism—the swift growth of a party of zealots in a national political power—how they are aided by the economic unrest and how they threaten to engulf the labor unions. The latest number is called: Is Socialism Upon Us?

Stanton Muck, who was painfully injured in an elevator accident at the Hazlewood Creamery last week and taken to a hospital is rapidly recovering.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Beulah Titus at the home of Miss Gladys Bredeson last Friday evening, it being the anniversary of her birth. The party of young friends met at the home of Mrs. Mathews and proceeded to the Bredeson home in a body. The evening was pleasantly spent in taffy pulling and other diversions. Punch and wafers added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

It is claimed by some of the parties interested in the Willamette boulevard controversy, that the Review erred in stating that this boulevard had ever been used as a highway 100 feet wide for a period of ten years. Mr. Perkins to the contrary, notwithstanding. They claim it had never been used as a highway for that width; that a fence had been placed and maintained at the eighty foot limit for the past 20 years or more.

Help to Pay Excess

In order that the proposed improvement of Dawson street might go through and the city not be too deeply encumbered in taking care of the excess cost, the following have shown their public spiritedness and philanthropy by subscribing the amounts below:

A. S. Benson, $350; H. E. Harris, $250 in addition to his property assessment on the improvement; Peter Autzen, $100; St. Johns Lumber Co., $100; Peninsula National Bank, $100; Portland Woolen Mills Co., $100; Thos. Cochran, $100; First National Bank, $100; Gillen-Chambers Co., $60; St. Johns Gas Co., $50, making a total of $1300 subscribed. The Star Sand Co. was awarded the contract for the improvement last Tuesday evening at more than $2000 below the engineer's estimate. According to Engineer Andrew the remaining excess cost is about $800, which will be taken from the general fund of the city.

Mr. John Little spent Sunday at the Greene ranch in Washington.
