The Model Laundry at the foot of Pittsburg street was completely consumed by fire this morning at 3:15. The alarm was turned in after the flames had gained such headway that they could not be stayed. The fire department rendered most efficient aid in saving adjoining property. The fire boat from Portland made slow time in reaching the scene. The Delaware fire department of Portland and the police patrol also made their appearance. The laundry was one of the most modern and finely equipped in the Northwest. We understand it was insured for $7,000. In all probability the plant will be immediately rebuilt. The fire was apparently of incendiary origin, as the fires in the engine were out early in the evening and the lights had all been turned out.

A fire resulting in the total destruction of one residence and badly damaging another took place about midnight on Wednesday night. The dwelling of O. F. Beden on Fox street was burned to the ground with practically all its contents, and a house adjoining, occupied by Mr. Snyder was damaged to the extent of about $500. The origin of the fire was unknown. The damage was partially covered by insurance. The Beden home was almost consumed before the alarm was turned in, and the fire department could do little except to save adjoining property.

Roy Wilcox, one of St. Johns' transfer men, has sold out his business to Mr. Gatten and son. Mr. Wilcox has been in the business in St. Johns for the past eight years and has been very successful. He expects to remain with Mr. Gatten for a time and later will endeavor to locate on some little ranch for a rest, and if he feels then, that business again calls him to his old trade, he feels that St. Johns will be good enough for him. Mr. Wilcox will always boost for St. Johns for that has been the place where he has best success.

In some devious manner the report has been made that J. E. Williams will not be a candidate to succeed himself as Justice of the Peace in this district. This is utterly erroneous and unfounded. Mr. Williams is the regular Republican candidate and is in the race to win. He has just gotten his hand in nicely, makes an ideal Justice, and should be accorded the unanimous support of all voters regardless of party. You bet, the Judge is in the race.

Thomas F. Barton died at his home, 223 Tyler street, Wednesday evening at about 7:30, aged 75 years. Mr. Barton, who was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the Order of Masons, leaves a wife and two daughters, the latter being Mrs. W. C. Roe of this city and Mrs. Eugene Warwick of Aberdeen, Wash. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Blackburn, Chambers & Lowry undertaking parlors. Interment at Rose City Park cemetery.

Thos. McCusker, Independent Republican candidate for Congress from the Third District, will speak at the city hall tomorrow evening. Mr. McCusker is a most interesting talker, and besides advancing his political interests will no doubt impart useful information. W. A. Leets and other speakers may also appear. The talks will be well worth hearing. All invited.

Night Officer Dunbar landed a culprit in the city bastille Monday evening. It got between his legs and almost threw him to the ground as he was hastening to the fire. It was his dog, and he put it behind the bars to prevent a recurrence of the occurrence.

C. C. Currin has added some fancy touches to the North Bank Pharmacy of late, and it now shines and illuminates like a "nigger's" heel in the moonlight. Currin knows how to make a place attractive, and he does it. Go and see.

W. R. McKeon has been appointed street inspector on Dawson street, and S. C. Cook on Olympia street. Under the eagle eyes of these gentlemen it is safe to say that the improvements will be well and satisfactorily done.

The Ladies Roosevelt club of Portland held a club meeting in the high school auditorium last Friday evening. While the attendance was scarcely as large as expected, the gathering was an interesting and instructive one. Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Beden desire to thank the neighbors and friends who rendered such efficient aid at the time of the fire which consumed their home Wednesday night.

HON. E. W. HOCH.

Hon. E. W. Hoch, who is to lecture here, was one of the most popular governors of Kansas which that state has ever had. He is an orator and a thinker. Wherever he has appeared, on either the Lyceum or Chautauqua platform, the audiences have been delighted as well as instructed by his message.

During his administration many of the things which he championed were crystallized into law. A few of these may be summed up as follows:

First—Oil legislation which has made possible in three years the establishment of nineteen successful independent oil refineries where only one nearly bankrupt institution existed before and an annual saving of $1,000,000 to the consumers of coal oil alone in Kansas.

Second—An entire change of management in state institutions, putting them on a civil service business basis, resulting in wonderful increase in their efficiency.

Third—The enactment of a series of railroad laws quelled in number perhaps and in far-reaching effectiveness by the laws of any other state.

Fourth—A fine state printing plant, complete, the cost of which ($100,000) has already been saved.

Fifth—A depository law for state funds, yielding nearly $2,000 per month to the state.

Sixth—An anti-pass law.

Seventh—A drastic pure food law.

Eighth—A radical change in assessment and taxation laws.

Ninth—A judicial parole law that will restore many adult offenders to good citizenship.

Tenth—A juvenile court law that is saving many incorrigible boys and girls from jail stains and criminal careers.

Eleventh—The enforcement of the prohibitory law, which has made Kansas the freest from saloons and the soberest, as it is the most prosperous state in the Union.

Twelfth—Two cent railroad fare.

Thirteenth—A state wide primary election law.

Fourteenth—Valuable amendments to banking laws.

EX-GOVERNOR E. W. HOCH.

STRICKLAND W. GILLILAN.

Few literary men in American national life have received more honors than has Strickland W. Gillilan, the humorist. Not only have these honors come to him as a great literary man, but as a public speaker. Twice within the year 1912 he was a speaker on the same banquet program with President Taft. The Ohio university during the same year conferred on him an honorary degree.

Not only is Mr. Gillilan a magazine, newspaper and platform humorist, but he is a poet and philosopher. The Ladies' Home Journal a year ago contained five original poems of Gillilan's with an introductory paragraph by the editor, who commended upon the versatility of a writer who, being author of five tender and serious poems there given, had also written the famous "Oh Agie, Oh Agie, Gone Agie—Fis aigie." His literary work has also appeared in the Woman's Home Companion, Success, Life, Saturday Evening Post and many other publications. Mr. Gillilan is one of the positive and distinct personalities presented to the world through the Lyceum and the public prints. He is not a copyist, either in manner or matter, his originality being his distinctive characteristic besides his merit.

One of Mr. Gillilan's humorous lectures is entitled "Sunshine and Awkwardness." Another is "A Sample Case of Humor."

THE BERGEN-MARX COMPANY.

Four notable artists comprise the Bergen-Marx Company, the biggest musical attraction booked under Redpath management this year.

Alfred Hiles Bergen is a native born American who has had a decidedly meteoric career. He has studied with some of the greatest American vocal teachers and has also done special work in German lieder with George Henschel of London. His repertoire comprises some 900 songs and several oratorios.

Leon Marx appeared with the Theodore Thomas Orchestra for ten years. At the age of twenty he held the position of first violinist in this famous organization and later on played solos accompanied by the Thomas Orchestra. Mr. Thomas has joined in the applause for an encore for Marx solos.

While in Berlin Mr. Marx competed with forty-eight musicians for a scholarship under Dr. Joachim and won the prize. Less than a year ago Mr. Marx was appointed assistant concert master of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, one of the highest positions that can come to a violinist in this country.

Hans Dressel, the violoncellist with this company, was born in London. He appeared at an early age as a pianist in both public and private recitals and later continued his studies abroad, going to Weimar, where he eventually made the violoncello his principal instrument with the world renowned Grutzmacher for his master. Making great progress, he soon went to London, and while at the Guildhall School of Music he became first winner of the Libbyton prize for the violoncello.

Mr. Machlin, the pianist with this company, received his first training in the cathedral choir at Salisbury, England. He studied the piano and composition under Dr. Clark's ward for some six years. He went to Winnipeg, Canada, in 1905, where he taught for a number of years, continuing his studies in technique with John Sebastian Ambler.

Loggers and lumbermen are again having their inning. After a summer in which there was less loss from forest fires than for many years, the lumber market is in better condition than for a long time. Both rail and steamship business is good and indications are that the winter will be a good one for the saw mill business.

The Debonair Club met at the home of Mrs. Gray on Thursday and as it was also the birthday of Mrs. Day, she was given a surprise handkerchief shower. An enjoyable time was had by those present. The club will meet with Mrs. Gammel next week.

Mother Gillespie presented the fire department with ten dollars and their breakfast yesterday morning in recognition of the valuable work accomplished by the department in saving her boarding house from the flames.

For Rent—A 7 room house near Jersey street on Chicago, cheap. Some furniture. Call 1025 South Jersey.

Satisfaction is the word—Gilmore, the Barber.
