Satisfaction, is the word—Gibson, the Barber.

Roy Ingledue has sold his residence to Mrs. Harvey.

Curran says: For quick recovery when sick have your prescriptions filled there.

Thos. Glover is moving his saloon from Burlington street to the Woodhouse building on Philadelphia street.

The Misses Graves gave a delightful party to their young friends in their apartments in the Holbrook building last Thursday evening.

The postoffice assistants heaved a great sigh of relief when the election was over. Campaign literature almost by the ton almost swamped the office at times.

The young son of Groceryman Charley Muck, who had a delicate operation performed upon one of his ears, is getting along nicely, and will soon be wholly recovered.

Full blooded Rhode Island Reds Cockerels, nine months old. For sale cheap. Also fryers, 516 Central Ave. Phone Col. 559.

Mr. Poultryman: If you are not getting eggs, don't blame the chickens. Help them along by feeding Conkey's Laying Tonic. Laughters Mercantile Co. has it. 7p.

Substantial repairs and alterations have been made to the Methodist church class rooms on Leavitt street, which affords greater convenience and attractiveness.

The St. Johns pharmacy has been embellished and the interior brightened by new tints. Other improvements have also been made. It is one of the most attractive pharmacies on the Peninsula.

Many new families are moving into St. Johns from all parts of Uncle Sam's domain. By the way the vacant houses have become occupied, the city's population must be well over the 6000 mark.

Mrs. Al Harris and children have returned from Crabtree, Oregon, and will spend the winter in St. Johns. Al had to put in a few more days hunting in that sportman's paradise before following suit.

The dinner given by the ladies of the Methodist church in the Holbrook building on election day was most successful in every way, and the ladies desire to thank the many patrons for their attendance.

Congregational Church: Preaching 11 A. M. 7:30 P. M. Sunday School 10 A. M. Prayer-meeting 7:30 P. M. You are cordially invited to attend these and all other services of the church.—James Murphy, Pastor.

There will be a men's meeting at Congregational Church Sunday at 3:00 P. M. All men, old and young, are invited to the service. This will be a union service and earnestly request all pastors to be present.

Mrs. C. J. Johnson and her 3 year old son, Arthur, of Los Angeles, Cal., have been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. T. Larson, on their return trip from Europe. Mrs. Larson had not seen her sister for 26 years.

It will cost approximately one and three-quarter million dollars to run the state institutions during the coming two years, according to the budget being made for action by the next Legislature. This is somewhat less than was appreciated at the last session for like purposes.

Proud father: "I tell you sir, that boy of mine will be a wonder!" Friend (wearily): "What wonderful things has he done now?" Proud father: "Why, the other day he ate all the preserves in the pantry. I overheard him say, as he smeared the cat's face with the stuff: 'I'm sorry Tom, to do this, but I can't have the old folks suspect me.'"

One quality, one kind of service, one price. THE BEST. Curran says so.

What is said to be the biggest orchard of Winter Nellies pears in the United States is located near Central Point and it belongs to F. H. Hopkins. It is 30 acres in extent and although the crop this year will be somewhat lighter than usual, it will produce 12 carloads of fine fruit. The price for the Hopkins pears has never been less than $2 per box and some seasons the price has been considerably higher.

A Chinese pheasant made a strenuous effort to get into the council chamber of the city hall last week while the council was in session. It flew against the window with considerable force, and not being successful in effecting entrance, tried another window with the same success. Mayor Muck obligingly raised the window, but the bird, which was a beauty, seemed to have changed its mind and flew away.

Let us finish your Kodak work. No money until satisfied. Curran says so.

Curran says: Vinol will give you strength.

Is your husband cross? An irritable, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach trouble by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers.

Stop that cough. Nyals Cherry Bark Cough Remedy will do it. Curran says so.

C. E. Rhoads, a man of many years experience in the business, has taken over the Whitwood Court grocery, and is prepared to serve the public with the latest and most up-to-date in the merchandise line. Rhoads is a live wire and bound to make good.

We have borne the standard in drugs for four years, and we still have it. Curran says so. "It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Campbell of Lavonia, Ga. "I have used it with all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by all dealers.

If women were to dress sensibly, as Mrs. Potter Palmer suggests, they would not need near so many dresses. Dressmakers must live, hence they must make frequent changes of style in order to stimulate business. When women become less like sheep, dressmakers will not be able to dictate what clothes they shall wear. The same rule applies to men, only less so.—Exchange.

Mrs. B. A. Churchill, who has been quite ill, is rapidly recovering, which her friends will note with pleasure.

The autumn leaves are red and pink!
We see them everywhere.
The modest trees now blush to think
Their limbs will soon be bare.

The Knights of Pythias held an open meeting last Friday evening, which developed into a reception in honor of Mrs. Hannah Vincent, who was recently elected Grand Chief of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon. A most enjoyable time was had.

Eat at least one apple on Apple Day, Nov. 18. Governors of four states will be asked to issue proclamations setting aside this date as a time for eating Oregon's famous fruit. It is said that Oregon people eat fewer apples than Easterners, although they live in the state most favorable for apple production.

The first annual Fall flower show to be held in Portland will be staged in the Armory Nov. 15 and 16. The Portland Floral Society will hold the event and regular shows are planned hereafter at different seasons of the year. Handsome prizes have been provided, both cups and cash premiums.

J. S. McKinney is the proud possessor of sixteen fine and sturdy young Chinese pheasants. He secured the eggs in May and gave one of his hens the job of hatching them out. This it did to perfection, with the result that sixteen pheasants were ushered into the world.

McKinney and Davis have disposed of three lots recently in Block O, facing on Polk, Tyler and Gresham streets, respectively. They were purchased by newcomers to St. Johns, namely, Messrs. Nutting, Goddard and Moffit. Two of the new comers are erecting residences on the lots, and the third is contemplating doing so soon.

Fred Mossman, well known in this city, and formerly a member of the Willamette Four, was married at Manhattan, Kansas, October 16th, to Miss Gladys Grace Deaver of that city. He is first assistant engineer and foreman of the boiler rooms in the Manhattan Agricultural College. His friends here wish him all the joy and happiness that married life affords.
