W. P. McIntyre of Ranier has been a guest of his brother, R. E., of this city this week. He states that Ranier is in flourishing condition and is bound to become an important city.

Mr. Poultryman: If you are not getting eggs, don't blame the chickens. Help them along by feeding Conkey's Laying Tonic. Laughters Mercantile Co. has it.

F. W. Coffyn brought a twig of pussy willow into the office Wednesday. It was almost in full bloom and covered with buds. Mr. Coffyn takes this as another indication of an easy and pleasant winter.

If our side streets in the center of town were hardsurfaced there would not be as much mud carried onto the streets that are already hardsurfaced. And it would not be necessary to continually employ men to brush the mud off the streets.

The hole in the ground which has been created at the brick plant by the removal of gravel and brick clay therefrom might prove a fitting place to dump the city garbage, a citizen suggests. It might produce town lots and at the same time get rid of the garbage.

Now is the time for hot water bottles. We have the best. Prices right. Currin says so.

You will find that druggists everywhere speak well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. They know from long experience in the sale of it that in cases of coughs and colds it can always be depended upon, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

The monthly business meeting of the Philo-Christo Class was held in the basement of the Evangelical church last Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected for the year 1913: President, Minnie Plaskett; Vice-President, E. L. Perkins; Secretary, Roy Beam; Assistant Sec., Cordelia Cross; Treasurer, Percy Schelters; Class Reporter, Lillie Sizemore. Any young people and especially strangers in the city are cordially invited to meet with us Sunday at 10 A. M. in the main auditorium of the Evangelical church, Corner John and Ivanhoe streets.—Reporter.

Don't suffer for drugs in the night. Call us, Room 5 Hotel Irwin, North Bank Pharmacy.

Hindus are still in evidence in St. Johns.

Gilmore's Barber Shop—a specialty on children's hair cutting.

The local stores have nearly all taken on a Christmas aspect.

Get your prescriptions filled with the best drugs. Currin says so.

The new front of the sub-station in the McChesney building is making a most attractive appearance. F. B. Page has the work in charge.

The owner of the St. Johns Brick yard has constructed a derrick and other necessary appliances for the removal of sand and gravel, which they have for sale.

St. Johns should have a town clock. The hour of 8 P. M. is covered well by the fire bell, but a town clock would prove quite a convenience to the traveling public.

I have three nice places to rent at Philadelphia Head, St. Johns, Oregon, namely, restaurant, storeroom and billiard room. Each and all are the very best. I will place a $200 cork linoleum on the billiard room floor. McKinney and Davis, agents. Phone Columbia 2. All roads lead to Philadelphia Head, St. Johns, Oregon—Charles C. Woodhouse, Jr.

Myron C. Gould died at his home at 1008 Polk street Dec. 12, 1912, of heart disease. He was born in Cook county, Ill., Nov. 7, 1845, and moved to St. Johns about three years ago. He is survived by a widow, Julia, and eight children, as follows: O. G. and Archie Gould of St. Johns; Mrs. R. M. Pyle of Beaverton; Mrs. Edith Walker of Portland, and Arthur Gould, Mrs. W. D. Moss, Mrs. C. H. Ragen, Mrs. G. C. Malcolm all of Eureka, Cal. The remains will be laid beside his son, Ernest, who died two years ago, in Rose City cemetery. Time of funeral has not yet been definitely settled.

A woman wearing a long hat pin may be ejected from a street car in Berlin. Here the rest of the folks have got to get out.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve chicken pie dinner in the basement of the church, corner of Leavitt and Hayes street, New Year's day from five to nine p. m.

The banquet hall was adorned with many beautiful paintings, and the president of the little college was called upon to respond to a toast. Wishing to pay a compliment to the ladies present, he designated the paintings with an eloquent gesture and said: "What need is there of these painted beauties when we have so many with us at the table?"—Ex.

This is the season of the year when a skirmish is made by supposedly charitable inclined persons to raise funds for giving a free dinner to the destitute. It would be best to save the money and give it direct to the destitute of St. Johns, and then you will know that the aid you give goes where it will do the most good, and no danger will be felt that the money might lurk indefinitely in the hands of the solicitors.

Representative Lafferty has introduced a bill to further amend the three year homestead law by reducing the period of residence required each year from seven to six months. He will urge the passage of this bill upon the grounds that many people who work on salary would be able to prove up on the homesteads if allowed to be absent working at their trades or professions six months out of each year. The Canadian law only requires six months presence on the land each year.

There will be regular services at the Baptist church Sunday. The church has called a new pastor, Mr. Charles Wealty, a very able man in the work. He commences his work with the church Sunday morning. All members of the church and congregation are urged to be present at these meetings and lend their hearty support with the new pastor. All strangers are cordially invited to attend the church services. Be a booster in the work of the church and make the work a success.

The Willumbia Assembly, Number 300 of United Artisans of St. Johns met Friday evening in the M. W. A. Hall. There was an excellent programme rendered consisting of recitations, sketches, readings, music and also some fine addresses from some of the visiting Artisans, who were present. Following the programme we were invited to partake of a delicious spread which was in waiting for us. There were about fifty persons present. All reported a most delightful time. All who have not and are not attending these Friday night meetings are missing many a good and enjoyable times.—A member.

Come to the old Star Meat Market Saturday, Dec. 14 and see what the Baptist ladies have for sale. Perhaps you might enjoy the hot lunch.

Chas. Deitz has disposed of his cigar stand and pool rooms on Philadelphia street to a couple of young gentlemen from Portland. Charley will spend some time at the Springs in trying to thaw out a persistent and tenacious attack of rheumatism.

Bonham & Currier's display of dolls in their show window this week is one of the finest displays ever exhibited on the Peninsula, and even the high priced window dressers of Portland would have to "go some" to excel it. The other windows of their three stores are all most attractive and draw much attention from the patrons and passersby.

The Debonair Club delightfully entertained their husbands at the home of Councilman J. E. Hiller last Thursday evening at dinner. After dinner a very clever guessing game was presented and Mrs. E. F. Day and Mrs. A. W. Markle each guessing the same number correctly, burned matches for the first prize, a handsome look. Mrs. Day was the lucky one. Mrs. Hartel received the second prize, a box of candy, which she generously divided among the ladies. Every one had a splendid time, and the dinner could not be excelled. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Hewitt.

School Clerk J. E. Tanch has concluded the school census, and finds the following: Males, 763, females 723; total 1486. This is an increase of 91 over the school census of last year, and would indicate that present population of St. Johns is about 5,500.

Do not forget the W. C. T. U. at the library Monday afternoon. Watch for the window cards of Mrs. Linnie Garret Carl who will entertain us for an hour with readings and impersonations. The public cordially invited. Admission free—2:30 to 4:00 o'clock.

An excursion party from Portland, where it was organized by the Commercial Club and other civic bodies, went to Lewiston early this week to attend the annual stock show. Portland people show their interest in the interior country and its development upon every possible occasion.

J. S. Downey has been appointed Deputy by Sheriff-elect Tom Word. This appointment is a good one; in fact, could scarcely be improved upon. Mr. Downey has acted in that capacity during Mr. Word's former administration, and he acquitted himself in such a satisfactory manner that Mr. Word has lost no time in reappointing him to the same position.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that most infectious diseases such as whooping cough, diphtheria and scarlet fever are contracted when the child has a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and greatly lessen the danger of contracting these diseases. This remedy is famous for its cures of colds. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child with implicit confidence. Sold by all dealers.
