The Southern Pacific company will spend millions on its Oregon lines during the next two years, according to a formal statement of planned improvements that has been submitted to the California railroad commission. The company asks for permission to issue bonds to the amount of $30,000,000 and gives as a reason for the request the number of heavy contemplated investments in this state. Among these are: Electrification of lines in the Willamette Valley; reconstruction of the Sheridan-Willamina railroad at a cost of $2,501,880; Corvallis and Eastern R. R., $270,580; Pacific Railroad and Navigation Co., $134,540; Salem, Falls City and Western, $68,680.

A YEAR FROM NOW

In the next twelve months a considerable sum of money will pass through your hands. If you could save it all your progress would be rapid. If you spend it all, a year from now will find you at a standstill, financially.

But a little thought and careful planning, aided by a savings account at the Peninsula National Bank will enable you to look back at your year's effort with satisfaction and forward to the future with greater hopes.

The Children Day services at the Congregational church last Sunday evening were largely attended. A splendid program was rendered, which reflected great credit upon the superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. C. E. Woodley, as well as the children. The Sunday school is making great progress, constantly adding to the membership.

Constable J. F. Mitchell was the victim of an auto accident yesterday. He was coming around a turn near Fessenden street when the auto encountered a large rock. The auto stopped abruptly, but the Constable went on, traveling for a distance on his face, which shows much the worse for wear. The owner of the auto who was with him and whose name we failed to learn, was also thrown over the "dash board" and bruised to some extent. It was a very narrow escape from fatal accident.
