The Bachelor club gave one of the most enjoyable balls ever given in St. Johns at the skating rink Wednesday evening. About 75 couples participated in the good time. The music rendered was never better and the floor was in a most ideal condition.

An enjoyable birthday surprise party was tendered Mrs. James E. Murphey by about 54 of her friends Tuesday evening, December 2nd. The evening was spent in a pleasant manner in music and games. Elegant refreshments added to the general enjoyment.

The 1913 school census just completed under the supervision of School Clerk J. E. Tanch shows that there are now in St.
Johns 1528 children of school age, of which 766 are males and 762 females. The school census of 1911 showed 1395 school children; 1912, 1436; 1913, 1528.
It will thus be noted that St. Johns is steadily growing in population.

Rev. James E. Murphey, pastor of the Congregational church, spent last week at Astoria. He states that he noted a marked improvement, both civic and moral, in that city since his last visit there.

Remember the meeting at the city hall next Monday afternoon.
It will be something new and interesting. Mrs. Roper of Portland will talk to us about the "Sailors' Christmas." She has been in close touch with Seaman's Missions for many years, and will have a great many interesting things to tell us. It will be a rare treat to hear her. —Reporter.

At a meeting of the citizens of North St. Johns, for the purpose of discussing the park question, in the city hall, Wednesday evening, G. L. Perrine was chosen chairman, and J. M. Shaw, secretary. After a lengthy discussion it was voted to recommend to the council the purchase of the Catlin tract for park purposes for North St. Johns. The attendance was not as large as anticipated.

The Board of County Commissioners received a communication from Geo. F. Heuser, stating that in connection with the Street Railway Franchise from the Kenton District to the business section of Portland recently granted him, it is his desire and those associated with him to use the new interstate bridge to connect up with their Clarke County system and asked the Board to consider his communication as a formal application for such privilege. The Board ordered that Mr. Heuser's letter be placed on file for future consideration.

tor of the M. E. church here, and well known, was a caller last Tuesday morning upon Rev.
Ingalls, the present pastor, at the M. E. parsonage.

The Senior Class of the Christian church's candy sale proved a splendid success. Mrs.
Byerlee received the box of candy awarded to the oldest buying 25c candy. Miss Her-wick received the box of candy awarded to the youngest. The class wishes to thank its patrons.

The Northern Hill grocery store, operated by the Equal Rights Company, was entered by burglars Monday night, but were frightened away before having an opportunity to make away with anything of value. J.
Schmauder, who lives overhead of the store room, heard them in the room below. He opened the window and the noise caused the thieves to make a hasty exit.

A mass meeting of the citizens of the First Ward for the purpose of selecting a park site favorable to the people of that ward, to be held in the city hall has been called for tomorrow evening. The residents of the Second Ward have made their selection, and when the First Ward folks do the same, the park question will have gotten in concrete form.

Captain and Mrs. Guy M.
Street of Alaska, accompanied by the Captain's mother, Mrs.
S. F. Street of Edmonds, Washington, arrived at the home of Mrs. Julia Parker in St. Johns last week. Mrs. S. F. Street is a sister of Mrs. Parker, and this is her first visit to Oregon.
Captain Street and wife have spent several years in Alaska.
They are on a tour of Eastern and Southern states, and will return to Oregon by way of California the last of January.

The Bungalow store on North Jersey street was entered by burglars some time between Saturday night and Monday morning, and a quantity of canned goods, cigars, chewing gum, nuts, cigarettes and cigarette papers were stolen. Entrance was effected through the rear window with an axe, which was left in the store. The bolt which locked the door between the back room and the main store had been pried off. The supposition is that it was the work of youngsters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Corbett entertained the Royal Neighbors and their friends at their home, 929 South Jersey street, Wednesday evening of last week.
The time was spent very pleasantly in playing "500," there being nine tables. Mrs. Sherman Cochran made the highest score and won the ladies' first prize, a hand painted plate. Mrs. N.
J. Bailey won second prize, a box of sachet powder. Mr. Gahl won the first gentleman's prize, a shaving glass, and J. F. Gill-more won second prize, a deck of cards. After the prizes were awarded, a dainty luncheon was served. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. McClure of Portland, and Mrs. Ready and Mrs. McClure of University Park. All departed at a late hour congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Corbett upon a very pleasant evening.

Work of the Senior Class of the Christian Church: This class was organized about three weeks ago and now has a membership of 54 boys and girls between the ages of 16 and 21.
The class is fortunate in having for a teacher Mrs. Overstreet, an experienced and very enthusiastic Sunday School worker.
The president of the class has authorized and assisted in a general fixing up of the class room, and this has resulted in a well lighted room with everything necessary to make it comfortable and homey. Many good times have been partly planned by the social committee, consisting of four members of the class. All boys and girls who are 16, but not 21, are asked to come and visit, and then, if possible, to join our ranks. This will help us gain our 75 members desired before Xmas.—The Secretary.

"Who is that ugly woman?" said one gentleman to another at a recent ball, pointing to a female at the opposite side of the room. "That's my sister, sir," replied the latter. "Oh," said the former, much confused at his predicament, "I didn't mean her, but that fright of a thing sitting next to her with the pink ribbon." "That," replied the other, "is my wife." was most enjoyably spent by the young people. Many pretty presents were received by the young hostess. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Elizabeth Letin, Lettie Reid, Mabel Reid, Mary Weber, Alpha Flynn, Beatrice Basey, Mabel Everett, Marie Edholm.

The St. Johns Junior foot ball team added another victory to its good record by defeating an eleven from Brooklyn 6 to 0 last Sunday on their home grounds.
The game was fast from start to finish, being scoreless until the third quarter, when Willford of St. Johns caught a forward pass and ran 45 yards for a touchdown. He failed to kick goal.
The line-up against Brooklyn was: C. Barnell; r. g., Wriekle;
l. g., Vinson, Dunsmore; r. t., Capt. McGregor; l. t., Teeling;
r. e., Willford; l. e., Larson.
