

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY

Whereas, the all wise Creator and Preserver, who doeth all things well, has removed from our midst our beloved brother and Noble Grand, with whom we took counsel only a week since, and with whom we shall meet no more on earth.

Be it resolved, that in the death of Noble Grand and Brother C. A. Bauer that Laurel Lodge No. 15, St. Johns, Oregon, has undergone an experience of sadness that mere words cannot express, for in the loss of Brother Bauer we have lost from our counsels a brother whose whole life was characterized by his fidelity to the principles of Odd Fellowship and whose plaudits have been the consolation of his life.

Brother Bauer was a man in whose prudence and ability as an executive the Lodge could rely, and his membership of 28 years attest his ability to promote the good of the Order by his sterling worth. He seemed not only to comprehend the just medium of Lodge measures, but the rarer quality of inducing his brothers and co-workers to respect and adopt his own opinions.

He beautifully and exemplarily discharged his duties as husband and parent. He blessed the domestic circle by the most cherished of domestic virtues, by his sterling integrity, his prudence, and blessed by the purity of his heart was strengthened by the beauty of his example, and the excellence of his counsel. It was this constancy of virtue, this fullness and continuity of character which won and kept for him the respect and confidence of his brothers and all who knew him.

Be it further resolved, that as a token of respect and devotion that our charter be draped for a period of thirty days; that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Lodge, and a copy be sent to the Pacific Odd Fellow and one to the St. Johns Review, and also one to the bereaved family, who have lost a husband and parent, and to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy, realizing that their father and protector has created a monument of love, fidelity and virtue, which time can never efface. Grecian marble and Parian bronze may fade away and decay, but never will the monument created in the minds of Odd Fellows by those who have lived as our Noble Grand and Brother has lived be effaced.

A PRETTY DEVELOPMENT OF THE VEST THE SMART FEATURE OF SO MANY GOWNS

There is scarcely a frock nowadays constructed entirely of one material. Contrast is the thing desired, and there are numberless ways of bringing it about. The gown of figured or brocaded material usually has its accessories of plain faced fabric and vice versa. The vest offers one of the most attractive ways of introducing a becoming color. A vest of Persian coloring goes far to make the dress of dark serge or silk becoming.

THE SPORTS COAT OF PLAID IS PRACTICAL AND BECOMING

The easy lines of the fashionable, uncorseted figure lend a greater charm to the graceful Russian blouse, with its long tunic and wide sash or girdle. Velvety fabrics, duvety or peau de peche in soft shades of blue, brown or green are perhaps the most favored for suits of this description.
