Any of these thrifty housekeepers will tell you they are satisfied with the Crescent. It is a good baker, it is easily kept clean. The Crescent is made in St. Johns. It consumes a small quantity of fuel and gives much heat. Crescent bodies are made from one sheet of heavy Cold rolled Wellsville Polished steel without seams.

Heavy asbestos board and steel plates form triple walls. This ingenious contrivance prevents the radiation or escape of the heat.

The Crescent is Plain Nickel trimmed. All Crescents are built on the same model like cut, the prices vary according to size and make up.

Every woman with a secret can find a willing ear to pour it into.

Carranza, the Mexican rebel chief, looks more like Santa Claus than a soldier.

Anna Held says most American women are too fat and too coarse. Another case of woman's inhumanity to woman.

Sometimes we think it would be much better if Opportunity, when she comes around, would blow a horn like the hawkers.

Three weeks after the fire occurred the Oregon Merchants' Mutual Fire Assurance Association paid the Lauthers' Mercantile Company $2700 for damages sustained.

The St. Johns Gas Company has removed the gas lamps on Philadelphia and Jersey streets, and replaced them with lamps that furnish greater illumination and are more attractive.

A few special bargains in Columbia Phonographs, come in and let us tell you how we do it; at the St. Johns Pharmacy, a big line of records always on hand.

J. N. Edlfsen has received many encomiums on his address on the currency question before the Commercial club recently, and which was published in the Review. A number of the plaudits came from high sources in financial and industrial circles.

St. Johns had some of the finest and most attractively dressed Christmas windows of any place in the country. Especially attractive were those of Bonham & Currier, Couch & Co., Ormandy Bros., St. Johns Pharmacy, Currins for Drugs, and others.

Laurel Lodge No. 186, I. O. O. F. celebrated their annual "Home Coming" in a befitting manner Monday evening in their Lodge hall. A large attendance was present, and a "feast of reason and flow of the soul" followed. Speeches full of wit and humor were indulged in, and a banquet served that tickled the inner man immensely. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed, and it was voted one of the best times that ever happened in the local lodge. An address that Noble Grand Bauer was just completing when he was suddenly called by death was read, which added a tinge of sadness to the occasion, and much regret was expressed on account of the Noble Grand's sudden demise.

As is its annual custom, the St. Johns Water Company presented each of its employees with a fat Christmas turkey, which generous act was highly appreciated by the employees.

Vice President Marshall has announced that he will go on a lecture tour between sessions of Congress. Bryan's "crime" doesn't look quite so heinous in the face of the vice president's resolution.

Pacific Cadu and wife of Cathlamet, Wash., were in St. Johns last Saturday, and expect to purchase a home here. Mr. Cadu, who is an old friend of R. E. McIntyre, is a retired rancher, and is greatly pleased with St. Johns.

The district, covering 69 acres of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, which is to be devoted to amusement concessions, is rapidly assuming its form. The grading has been completed, curbs are laid and most of the underground work of installing water, drainage and electric systems, is finished. A broad, solid central avenue has been run through it from north to south and construction work is well advanced. The "Arizona Canyon of the Colorado River" is well up, and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway expects to have it ready for business in ample time. The "Toyland" of Frederic Thompson, is under construction, and its office building on the site is already occupied.

George G. Pendell of the Prohibition party will speak at the Congregational church next Sunday evening at 7:30 upon the temperance question. Mr. Pendell is an eloquent speaker and handles his subject in a thorough manner.

Webber's Juvenile Orchestra appeared before a small but most appreciative audience at the skating rink last Friday evening. The entertainment provided was splendid, and the youngsters acquitted themselves admirably. It is a matter of regret that more of our people did not turn out to hear them, for they surely missed something that was well worth while.

P. L. Poepping is a guest of his father, Anton Poepping, on South Jersey street. Mr. Poepping left for the Alberta country, Canada, seven years ago when he was but eighteen years of age. He took up a homestead of 160 acres of fine land when the taking was good, and upon which he has now secured a patent. He has it well stocked and owns considerable farm machinery and implements. Mr. Poepping has demonstrated what a young man with grit, pluck and ambition can do, and while other young men of his age were loafing around or spending their money as fast as they made it, he struck out for himself and is now worth thousands of dollars.

Too many young men of the present day spend their time and their talents to no advantage, and later in life become malcontents and curse the country because they have no earthly possessions.

No Immediate Danger

That the Pacific Coast has ample time to prepare for an ultimate influx of European immigrants, is apparent from reports received from the Oregon State Immigration Commission. This conclusion has been reached by that office after making an extensive investigation in cooperation with the Oregon Development League, of reported sales of thousands of steamship tickets on the installment plan to prospective immigrants via the Panama Canal is without foundation.

Rumors that a great flood of European immigrants was to pour upon the Pacific Coast as soon as the Canal was open, has created great anxiety amongst civic organizations. The Oregon State Immigration Commission felt that if such a throng was actually in prospect, it was incumbent upon the Commission to ascertain what provisions could be made for distribution of arriving aliens away from the congested centers.

So far as a thorough investigation could disclose, no steamship company has yet quoted passenger rates for immigrants via the canal, and no such tickets are being sold either for cash or on the installment plan. Persistence of the old rumors caused that office to make such investigations and the reports now in hand from the American Consuls stationed at the important ports of Europe, utterly discredit the rumors of a direct Pacific Coast immigration.

The state of Oregon is especially well equipped through its commercial organizations banded together to handle any possible inflow of agricultural immigration. The Atlantic Coast states have not and never had such an organization as exists in this state for the distribution of agriculturists upon the soils of Oregon.

Ultimately positive that the favorable climate and inviting opportunities of the Pacific Coast will attract a large immigration from Europe through the canal, still the Immigration Commission feels no alarm over any immediate overwhelming influx.

We wish all our Patrons and Friends a Happy and Prosperous New Year

Those Little Shoes

These little shoes, I keep them still,
I keep them now and always will;
A place within my heart they fill—
This pair of little shoes.

Our little lad, I see him there,
His little face, so frail and fair,
The sunlight on his golden hair—
Our little lad long gone.

I keep them in the room where he was wont to lay; so careless, free;
For they bring back the past to me—
This pair of little shoes.

And so a little while each day I go in there to kneel and pray—
To weep for him who went away—
Who wore these little shoes.

—Harry M. Dean in Northwest Farmstead.

Ratification Meeting

At the ratification park meeting held in the city hall Monday evening, it was decided to include the Stearns-Allen tracts of land in the park budget to be recommended to the city council for purchase. The meeting was attended by the largest crowd that has attended any park meeting previously. Prof. C. H. Boyd was made chairman of the meeting, and C. B. Russell acted as secretary. It was also decided to recommend that the park proposition be submitted to the people for bond issue on the unit plan—that is, all the tracts must carry or none. This requires a two-thirds vote of the people to carry. Dr. A. W. Vincent opposed the unit plan, as did one or two others, believing that putting each tract on the ballot separately would be the most democratic plan of voting. Remarks were made by G. L. Perrine, D. C. Lewis, Marion Johnson, Dr. A. W. Vincent, Chas. Anderson, Carl Majeska and others. Adding the Stearns-Allen tracts to the budget would require a bond issue of about $40,000, after the prices of some of the tracts selected have been pared down a little in price, and on which we understand, owners are willing to make some concessions. The four tracts recommended are: The Caples tract at $10,000, the Cook tract at $5,000, the Catlin tract at $10,500, the Stearns-Allen tracts at $15,000. But it is believed that at least $1500 will be lopped off the total sum by agreement of the owners, and possibly more.

Watch Night Service

A watch night service will be held at the M. E. church next Wednesday night, to watch the Old year out and the New year in. A three section program is being arranged, as follows: First—A regular service with New Year's sermon.

Second—Refreshment hour from 9:15 to 10:30 at which time the ladies' aid society will serve a cafeteria luncheon in the basement of the church.

Third—At 10:30 and until the New Year a platform meeting with several speakers followed by praise and prayer as the Old year goes out and the New comes in.

Close with benediction and greetings. Every one is cordially invited to join with us in this service and assist in making it a happy, joyous and profitable occasion. This meeting is to be the first of our season of revival meetings which will continue thereafter. Join with us in all these meetings and thus help on the kingdom of God.

Held Annual Election

The local camp No. 7546 Modern Woodmen of America, at their last meeting held their annual election of officers, which resulted in the following: Neighbors being unanimously elected to the offices, as follows: Past Consul—Geo. W. Muhm, Consul—C. R. Chadwick, Advisor—H. C. Avey, Banker—Geo. W. Dunbar, Clerk—Chas. E. Garlick, Escort—Samuel Crompton, Watchman—J. A. Simpson, Sentry—Chas. K. Tooley. There was a large attendance, lots of business and plenty of fun. Installation of officers will take place at a joint installation of Royal Neighbors of America and M. W. A., on Thursday, January 8th, at 8 p. m. at I. O. O. F. Hall, University Park. Jointly they wish every one a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
