HERE A BOLERO AND AN OVERBLOUSE IN WAIST-COAT EFFECT ARE DISTINCTIVE

The once favored bolero has again taken quite a hold on popular fancy. As of old, it is fashioned of plaids and contrasting materials and is worn with or without sleeves. When the underblouse is of net or lace the effect is very pleasing, and the Medici frill is still a smart and becoming finish to the neck; in fact, a dress does not seem complete without its flimsy frill or two.

Crope de Chine in eco blue was used with 8049. The underblouse is of shadow lace, and the sash is of satin in the same blue. Neck and sleeves are both finished with the tiny frill of net.

This dress may be made in size 36 with 6 yards of 36 inch material and 1/2 yard of allover net for the front.

Another of our economical fads this season is the waist-coat vest or overblouse. If the skirt and blouse are plain the vest may be of brocade, interesting in this way a smart touch of color. As illustrated in 8049-8036 a smart hard finish serge in dull blue fashions the vest and three tiered skirt, being charmingly relieved by a figured sash and an underblouse of flowered net.

The blouse (8040) may be made in any size with 1 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for the vest, 2 1/2 yards of 26 inch contrasting material for the gumpie and 1/2 yard of silk for the girde.

No. 8019—sizes 34 to 42.
No. 8040—sizes 32 to 42.
No. 8036—sizes 14, 16, 17 and 18.

FOR OUT OF DOOR WEAR NOTHING EQUALS THE MIDDY BLOUSE

In the matter of outing clothes Dame Fashion is quite as "fussy" as with the more conventional garments. One would never think of playing golf in a peg-top skirt, unless it were unusually wide at the bottom; and a fluffy bodice would be quite as much out of place. The Middy blouse is an ideal garment. It is an American idea that has been copied in Paris and very well liked.

Number 8154 is a design showing as a new feature, the raglan sleeve. Linen or some heavy wash material is usual but here it is fashioned of dark blue serge, collared and cuffed in white. The plaited skirt is also of serge. For the school girl a design of this sort would be attractive and very comfortable.

This blouse requires for size 36 3/4 yards of 36-inch material. The skirt may be made in size 24 with 7 1/4 yards of 36-inch material.

A simple little afternoon dress is illustrated in number 8157. It is a design that is particularly suited to bordered materials. A dark green flowered silk is employed here with a border embroidered in soutache braid. The inset section in the front of the skirt is a novel detail which at the same time gives a suggestion of the peg-top.

To copy this dress in size 36, 5 1/2 yards of 36-inch material will be required.

Number 8154—sizes 30 to 42.
Number 8036—sizes 22 to 32.
Number 8157—sizes 34 to 46.
Each pattern 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address Pattern Department, care of this paper.

See a pin and pick it up. You may have the worst of luck See a pin and let it lie. Good luck follows till you die. For a million getins may lurk Round the point, a poisoned dink, Of that awful little pin Residing with tubercle sin.
