hundreds of colds. Get it at The St. Johns Pharmacy. adv.

A heroine is a woman who is trying to make the best of a bad matrimonial bargain.

One reason so many men are unlucky is that they never go to work and give luck a chance.

Don't forget to bring or send in your news items. They are always highly appreciated. The more the better.

A.W. Davis has added a handsome new porch and made other substantial additions to a residence owned by him on South Gresham street.

It is reported that Mr. Mark-wart is contemplating erecting a business building on the corner of Jersey and New York streets in a short while.

Prof. C. H. Boyd has purchased two lots on the corner of Buchanan and Jersey streets thru the agency of McKinney & Davis, and he may decide to build a residence thereon.

The Empire Investment Co. has the foundations built for three neat residences in East St.
Johns, and it is said the company will build more houses after the three are completed.

The new house belonging to J.
S. McKinney on the corner of Pierce and Edison streets is rapidly nearing completion. Yates and Ford, who have acquired a splendid reputation as first class workmen, have charge of construction.

Rev. G. W. Eliot of the Portland Unitarian church and Edward Adams Cantrell of California will discuss "The Limitations of Socialism" at 227 Yamhill street, Portland, Sunday next at 3 p. m. The discussion will be free to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Larson of Spicer, Minn., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Valentine Tuesday. This has been their first visit to St. Johns in 13 years, and they were amazed at the advancement made by the city.

W. G. Turkington, formerly a resident of St. Johns, but now living the sane and simple life of a rancher on his eighty acres of fine land near Eugene, greeted his many friends here today.
He certainly looks as if rural life agrees with him, and he says he likes it fine.

While J. N. Keeler of St. Johns was attending a superintendent and teachers' meeting last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Green, 502 Seneca street, forty-five of the members and friends met at the church and marched in a body to the home of Mrs. Green, where by previous arrangement they were met at the door by Mr.
Keeler, being a complete surprise on him. After a general good time they were served with the excellent refreshments the ladies of the church are noted for.

Evangelical Church: K. L. C.
E. monthly business meeting will be held at the parsonage Friday, March 13, at 8 p. m.
Sunday at 9:45 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., preaching, theme for the sermon, "Foreign Missions;" 6 p. m., Junior C. E.; 6:30 p. m., K. L. C. E.; 7:30 p. m., preaching, theme, "Charms of the Old Book;" Wednesday p. m., L. A. Society meets at the church; 8:15 p. m., choir meeting; Thursday 7:30 p. m., teachers' meeting; 8 p. m., prayer meeting.

J. S. McKinney has purchased the J. E. Jennings property on Hartman street, which was partially destroyed by fire some months ago. Mr. McKinney has had the residence restored to its former usefulness, and it is now as attractive and substantial as before the fire. He has also made an exchange of property whereby he became possessor of a house and lot on South Ivanhoe street, between Burr and Buchanan, and also a house and lot near Dawson street and Northern Hill. Mr. McKinney sold a lot at Whitwood Court last week to Mrs. Mary Monday of Salem.

The W.C.T.U. meeting at the city hall next Monday will be very interesting and helpful.
After the business session the meeting will be in the form of a Bible study and consecration service, conducted by our Evangelistic superintendent, Mrs. T. J.
Monahan. This meeting had been planned for next month, but we felt the need of it just now.
If each one should come with a Bible text that is most helpful to them just at this time, beside the good things that our leader brings to us, I am sure it will be a good afternoon for us. We are sadly in need of Bible reading and prayer in these days, and we hope to help and be helped at this meeting. We expect to have a good attendance.—Reporter.

song, there are very few people who can remember more than three or four lines of it.

Mrs. Viola Johnson has purchased a fine lot on South Ivanhoe street, and will have an attractive residence constructed thereon in the near future, we understand. McKinney & Davis made the deal.

The lecture given by Dr. Green in the high school auditorium last Friday evening was one of the best ever heard in St. Johns, and those who were not in attendance missed a rare treat.

J. E. Kirk, a former realty man and well known citizen of St.
Johns, dropped in from Washington state the first of the week and greeted his old time friends and acquaintances. He is looking fine.

The Royal Arcanums held a most interesting meeting in advertising has already been secured.

The undersigned desires to extend her heartfelt thanks to Rev.
J. A. Goode and Mr. and Mrs.
Stark for acts of kindness rendered during the illness and death of her husband, and also to other friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy extended. Mrs. Emma Massey.

The announcement of George S. Shepherd, Republican candidate for Congress, appears in this issue. We believe that Mr.
Shepherd would prove a most valuable man for Oregon if elected. No man is more familiar with the needs of this territory in the way of deep water to the sea, and if elected it will not be his fault if it cannot be brought about.

Prof. C. A. Fry and Miss Elizabeth B. Books were united in marriage last Thursday evening at 9:30 in the St. James Lutheran church, Portland, Rev. J. A.
Leas performing the ceremony.
The bride arrived from York, Pennsylvania, at about seven o'clock in the evening and the ceremony was performed two hours and a half later. It was a great surprise to the Professor's friends, who had no intimation of the happy event. The groom is principal of the high school, and is a most popular young man with all classes. The bride is one of the Keystone state's most charming and accomplished young ladies. After March 20th they will be home to their friends at 721 N. Hayes street. The Review joins with the hosts of friends in wishing the newly mated pair a most blissful and successful journey down the stream of life together.

Better Service First

Editor Review: I noticed in your issue of February 27th an article telling us what a wonderful institution a bridge structure across the Willamette, connecting St. Johns with Whitwood Court, would be—one end resting on the foothills of the west side and the other upon some suitable location on our side of the river. Well, I think it would be all right, but I presume that gentlemen from Whitwood do not need to go to Portland for a living every day. If he does, he has a much better car service than we over on the east side.
My opinion is to work hard for a through car service to and from Portland. I am also very much in favor of a bridge if the Hill line will extend their line across the bridge into our city, therefore a better car service first. It will bring more people out here and improve business fifty per cent. C. A. Bruggemann.
