According to C. C. Coit, president of the Union Meat Company of Portland, Oregon is becoming noted as a hog and sheep raising state. Since 1912 no hogs have been shipped to the Portland stockyards from other states, the entire supply being drawn from Oregon. The absence of corn, which has always been considered indispensable to the finishing of good pork, has not troubled the Oregon farmer, as a combination of alfalfa, barley and other grains has been found an excellent substitute.
Farmer Smith of the O. W. R. and N. Railway, insists that within ten years Oregon will be one of the greatest corn producing states in the Union, and that the state will then be a heavy exporter of hog products.

taining to various candidates for the several offices, desire to submit the following list of names as candidates for the various offices to which we hereby give

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE CITIZENS OF ST. JOHNS I notice that Myrtle B. Brodahl has announced herself as an independent candidate for City Recorder. This lady was defeated in the primaries by about one hundred votes and it does not seem to be hardly just and fair, after submitting herself to the decision of the primaries, to now come out and announce herself as an independent candidate in opposition to the one who won in the primary fight.
In her statement she says she will appoint a male Deputy Recorder who will act as Municipal Judge in all cases where it is not proper for her to appear. This she has no power or authority to do. Under Sec. 75 of the city charter, it explicitly states that she has no authority nor power to appoint a Deputy Recorder to act in her place. The only person who can act and determine cases that come before her court is herself, under said Section.
Respectfully submitted,
C. E. SOMERS,
