SEE OUR NEW GOODS FOR SPRING. Our Stores are gradually getting away from the General Store idea. We are equipped reasonably well for specializing. With a separate room for Dry Goods, a separate room for Groceries and a separate bldg. for Men's Furnishings we propose to specialize in Departments more exhaustively this Spring than we have before.

Usually stores of the character of a General Store buy from about the same jobbing lines and all have very much the same sort of merchandise.

Business in St. Johns has attained a size now where exclusive agencies can be commanded and these are the lines we endeavor to follow.

Our Dry Goods Department controls the agency for the Warner Corsets, the Buster Brown and the Wunderhose, the Puritan and Athena Under-muslins and the Criterion Dresses for children and ladies. Our Men's Toggery controls the St. Johns agency for Regal Shoes, Fiorsheim Shoes, Arrow and Silver Shirts and Collars. The Peck Suits for Men and Headlight Overalls.

For The Garden: The Grocery Department displays the Luther Burbank Seeds. With a purchase of $1.00 a book on flower culture written by Mr. Burbank is given. This book is not sold but can only be had with the purchase of seeds amounting to $1.00. Would you grow your flowers with the idea of getting the best results? The Burbank authority is the best the world affords.
