The American love of fair play will condemn the attempt to deceive the voter at the next primary election by the introduction of one Thos. Kay as a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer, if, as is believed, such deception is being attempted. The present incumbent, Mr. Thos. B. Kay, is just the sort of a business man, successful in his own affairs, that the state needs to care for its funds. The State Treasurer, besides having the state funds in charge, is a member of a number of boards, and in the performance of his duties as such member, there is needed a ripe business experience. There is no indication that the ex-detective, Thos. Kay, has any of the needed qualities for such an important office. Fortunately the voters of this state are too intelligent to be fooled by the introduction of Thos. Kay into the fight. Few, if any, believe for a moment that the former detective is in the field at his own suggestion, and with his own means. Whoever is at the bottom of the scheme, it will not injure the present incumbent of the office. Those who heard Mr. Thos. B. Kay speak at the late gathering of candidates at the public library in Portland were very much impressed with the character of the man and with his forceful remarks. In our judgment, the state of Oregon needs just such a man as the present incumbent to handle its financial affairs, and the Republican voters will do well at the next primary to guard against the confusion caused by the similarity of the names of Thos. B. and Thos. Kay.

Authority for Announcement

I herewith announce again that if elected to the office of City Recorder I will appoint a Deputy to take care of all Municipal Court cases where it is not proper for me to appear. I made this statement once before, but a Mr. C. E. Somers, of this city, denied emphatically that this could be done. I question his authority.

Before publishing this announcement I was advised by several attorneys and also an ex-Judge of Portland that this was perfectly regular. Since seeing his statement in the paper I wrote the Attorney General, giving him sections 11, 74 and 75 of our City Charter, and the following is his reply:

Miss Myrtle Brodahl, St. Johns, Oregon.—Dear Madam: Replying to your letter of the 20th instant to this office asking whether or not in the event of your being elected city recorder of St. Johns, you could appoint a deputy to attend to a certain portion of the work, I beg to state that in my opinion such a deputy could be appointed.

Yours very truly,
A. M. CRAWFORD,
Attorney General.

There have been other reports, circulated no doubt by the opposing parties, which I have not considered it worth while to deny, for I give every voter whose votes I would care to have, more credit than to consider such childish things in selecting a city official.

I am, however, not using the shortcomings of my opponents as stepping stones to an office, as I find it works far better to let voters know why I think I am qualified for a position rather than why I think others are not.
MYRTLE B. BRODAHL,
Candidate for City Recorder.

What Do They Mean

Why did the representatives of the churches of St. Johns enter into politics to the extent of placing a full city ticket in the field for the coming city election on April 6th? They state, "To secure a clean city, morally." They would, apparently, have you believe that such a course is absolutely necessary in order to secure such a city, and from their point of view absolutely necessary so to do. Is it because a clean city morally to them is equivalent in part to no open places of amusement or entertainment on Sunday, no Sunday ball games, and no saloons after the expiration of the present license period, irrespective of whether the state votes dry or not in the Fall elections? If the majority vote desires a repetition in part of a past unprofitable experience it would seem to have an excellent chance of securing it. The formerly ex-good business men, too—who foolishly permit their families to live up to every cent that they earn. Do they forget the story of the seven years of plenty followed by the seven lean ones? When "hard times" come along what becomes of the families that neglected to save in their prosperous days? THEY are certainly the FIRST to feel the pangs of poverty—and sad indeed will be their plight if the father is by that time too old to recommence the struggle for existence. pressed intention of voting the city dry on April 6th was abandoned, whereupon the present plan has been substituted, which would apparently be equivalent to a local wet and dry vote. Respectfully submitted as a query.

How About This

Mr. Editor: I attended a very interesting and instructive lecture given by Professor Sweetser at the Library in St. Johns last Wednesday night. The subject was Oregon Ferns. I was amazed at the mere handful of people who attended. Where were the teachers, the high school pupils, and the parents who want to take an interest in something outside their four walls? What could be a greater source of inspiration than the outdoors with its abundance of flowers, and ferns, and trees? Your city is particularly blessed to have such wonderful country all around it, yet nobody seems to care to really be acquainted with its many beauties. There are many towns where no such good information can be had for nothing. It's to be hoped that Professor Sweetser's next lecture on "Wild Flowers" will be better attended.—A Portland Visitor.
