Men talk about what they would do if they had a million dollars, but nine out of ten lie about it. If they had one million the first thing they would do would be to lay plans and concoct schemes for getting two.

Paul Chabas is contemplating a visit to this country. Chabas is the artist who painted that collection of goose pimples known as "September Morn." He will be safe now; most people who had an idea they ought to feel shocked having recovered.—Ex.

Quite a novelty attraction will appear at the Multnomah Theatre next Monday and Tuesday evenings when a high class concert will be given by the One Armed Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. A. M. Shuff, from the Royal Academy at Leipzig, Germany. The attraction is said to be an excellent one.

"The moon never looked more beautiful than it did last night," says the Boston Globe. That's all right; maybe it never looked better to the writer, but the beauty of the moon depends upon the mental attitude of the observer. Twenty-five years have gone by since we saw the moon at its best.—Exchange.

Even the clearest and most perfect circumstantial evidence is likely to be at fault, after all, and therefore ought to be received with great caution. Take the case of any pencil sharpened by any woman. If you have witnesses, you will find that she did it with a knife; but if you take simply the aspect of the pencil, you will say that she did it with her teeth.—Lend a Hand.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Day, accompanied by Miss Malena Long, left last evening for a tour of the Eastern states. After stopping at a number of points of interest along the way, they will go to Syracuse, New York, where their automobile has been shipped. Mrs. Corbett suffered a stroke of paralysis about six weeks ago, and another two weeks before her death. She leaves, beside her husband, one son, Willis R., now residing at Dayton, Oregon. Dr. Corbett and family formerly resided in St. Johns, where they have many friends. Funeral services were held at Blackburn's chapel Tuesday afternoon; interment in Columbia cemetery.

Two ministers, Presbyterian and Methodist, were taking a walk along a railroad track one day discussing good naturedly the points of difference of their respective creeds. Presently, coming to the yawning mouth of one of those long tunnels for which this road is famous, the Methodist suggested that they go in. They had gone but a short distance when the Presbyterian brother exclaimed with sudden determination: "I'm going to get out of here! What if a train should come along?" "Oh, well," responded the other, with a twinkle, which his companion could not see, "what is to be will be, you know." "Yes," was the retort, "but I don't want to be in here!"—Exchange.

Holmes Lodge No. 101, Knights of Pythias, at its meeting last Friday night in Bickner's hall elected the following officers to serve for the next six months: Chancellor commander, G. W. Not only can you save money by purchasing of us, but you have the benefit of free delivery; also you patronize your neighbor who is always ready to rectify any little error or replace any goods that are not entirely satisfactory.—The St. Johns Pharmacy. adv.

On June 4 more than 1,000,000 pounds of wool was sold at Shaniko at prices ranging from 16 1/2 to 20 cents per pound. The wool was practically all taken by five buyers, one of whom bought 480,000 pounds. The largest individual sale was of 77,000 pounds at 18 1/2 cents.

The St. Johns booth at the Rose Carnival is attracting a great deal of attention. More than seven thousand roses were taken down the first day, Tuesday, by the various committees—more in fact than secured at any other booth, and none were more beautiful. The roses were renewed daily.

Late in October the Manufacturers' Association of Oregon and the Land Products Show company will hold a great joint exhibit in the Portland Armory and a temporary building to be erected near by. The object of the show is to gather a vast quantity of products of Oregon soil to be shown first in Portland and afterward the best of the material to be installed at San Francisco during the exposition next year. The prizes offered for land products will amount to about 48,000.

The Millionaire

Heave half a brick at the duffer!
Give him a lash with the knout—
Make all his interests suffer;
Rip him up inside and out.
Ruin his good reputation.
Give him a jolt and a scare;
Drag him from off his high station—
He's only a millionaire.
Cover his name with black scandal,
Deep from Beersheba to Dan;
Give him a thorough man handle;
Smirch him whenever you can.
Trip him in every venture;
Catch him with pitfall and snare;
Drown him with cynical censure—
He's only a millionaire.
Call him a thief and a liar;
Greet him with jibes and with jeers.
Drag down the name of his sire;
Snub his grandmother with sneers;
Whisper the vile gossip and rumor—
None of his family spare—
Treat his achievement with "humor"—
He's only a millionaire.
Cater to every excitement
Likely to tarnish his name,
Try to secure his indictment,
If he's a fellow of fame,
Fill him a poisonous chalice,
Mixture of wormwood and care,
Up with all envy and malice—
Down with the millionaire.
—Exchange.

Married Wednesday

Edwin L. Smith and Gladys Cooper, both of St. Johns, were joined in marriage at the home of the bride, 202 West Tyler street, Wednesday at 3 p. m., Rev. J. A. Goode officiating.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Miss Helen Koener played the wedding march. C. E. Zimmer and Miss Ruth Smith, sister of the groom, were the bridal best couple. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cooper, parents of the bride; Jennie Cooper Chaney, Iona and Lucy Cooper, sisters of the bride; Clifford Chaney, Mrs. J. A. Goode, G. E. and Oneda Buery were present. After a dainty lunch the young couple launched their matrimonial boat by taking the usual trip taken under like circumstances. They will be at home to their friends at 420 E. Richmond street after June 20. J. A. G.

Jesse Hurlbert purchased a handsome new Olds six cylinder machine this week.
