A Real Baby Carriage That Folds

Not one item that could make baby more comfortable is sacrificed to make this a folding carriage. On the contrary, this is the only baby carriage with a spring adjustable to baby's increase in weight and the Sidway Guaranteed Folding Baby Carriage has more room for pillows and quilts and for baby to move about than a full size Pullman Stationary Carriage.

Best for Baby and Best to Buy Unconditionally Guaranteed for Two Years

If any part wears out or breaks in two years, it will be replaced free of charge by the makers, The Sidway Mercantile Co., 1018 14th St., Elkhart, Ind. Call at the local dealers and see the real rubber tires, special quality Fabrikoid leather hood, adjustable spring and other features.

Fire broke out in the Central school building during the noon hour Tuesday. How it originated is a mystery, but the flames were subdued by Janitor Clark and Prof. Boyd before any serious damage was done, through the instrumentality of a couple of Babcock fire extinguishers belonging to the school.

The first freight vessel to be towed through the Panama Canal was the Grace liner, Santa Clara, carrying a cargo of Pacific Coast products, 90 per cent of which was loaded at Portland, nearly all of which will be discharged at New York. The vessel is comparatively new, this being her third trip to the Pacific Coast.

It has been suggested that the work of keeping the city as clean of weeds and other obnoxious vegetation as possible be turned over to the school children, with proper payment for the work accomplished. The plan might prove a good one. It would certainly develop an interest on the part of the younger generation to make the city as attractive as possible.

One of the prominent features of the Salem Cherry Fair, to be held June 25-26-27, will be an electrical parade the last night of the show. There will be ten floats in line, all gorgeously decorated and illuminated. Another interesting feature will be a street dance led by King Bing and Queen Ann and which will be participated in by the Cherrians and the Royal Rosarians of Portland.

Hayden Island being included in the tract. It is unlawful for any one to do any shooting whatever in the preserve, the penalty being a minimum fine of $50. Four game deputies will patrol the preserve almost constantly. Notices are being posted this week warning all people not to shoot there.

The Grade Teachers' Association gave a reception for the school board, supervisors and teachers last Monday evening at the library. The lecture hall was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses. After a splendid program, a dainty lunch was served by several charming young ladies of the Association. Several guests were out from Portland. The school board and wives were made very conspicuous throughout the evening by their absence.—Reporter.

The school board is considering the advisability of installing a commercial course in the schools, which will include typewriting, stenography, penmanship, orthography, etc. Night sessions will likely be held if the course is added. Funds are available for instruction and equipment necessary without increasing taxation. Ample funds are available for instruction expenses from state apportionment, and for equipment there is plenty of money in the James John fund for that purpose. The innovation would be hailed with a great deal of appreciation by many young people in St. Johns.

Corona Club Entertains

The Corona Club entertained the Alumni of Room 15 on Wednesday evening. Plans had been made for an open air reception at the home of Miss Frances Miller, but on account of the inclemency of the weather, City Superintendent C. H. Boyd very kindly granted the use of the Central School assembly hall. Chairs and tables were arranged and the hall artistically decorated with cedar boughs, flowers and plants, and gaily festooned with streamers of rose and gold, while everywhere the pennants gave a classic finish. Admission to the hall was obtained by respective class secret signs and pass words. Those present from the Owl Club graduating class of June, 1912, were Ethel Armstrong, Mabel Boxmann, Ray Brown, Esther Carlson, Floy Coffee, Pearl Evans, Ethel Hufford, George Hufford, Hazel Johnson, Oron Lear, Ruth McGregor, Ruth Nelson, Homer Plasket, Athelene Zoye, Arline Shaw, Carl Smith, Bertil Sundstrom, Althea Toole, Wesley Wrinkle and Della Young twenty out of thirty-four.

Those answering "Present" to the roll call of the Satellite Society graduating class of February, 1913, were Walter Andrews, Bernice Brownly, Florence Davis, Ivan Faber, Bonita Henry, Drott Larson, Marieta Miller, Minnie Miller, Lola Murphy, Minnie Nolen, Frank Palmer, Mildred Poff, Margaret Rassi, Marshall Shaw, Clyde Thayer, Flavius West—only four missing, they having moved from the city or state.

When the Star Society responded to their names there were nine present and five missing in the June, 1913, class: Irvin Gromachev, Otis Hays, Rosa Jaensen, Lowell Miller, Lester Ogden, Clara Pyeat, Alta Smith, Margaret Thurmond, Helen Woolhiser.

The Busy Bees graduating class of February, 1914, had the best per cent of attendance. Those present were Mamie French, Mildred Hodgrins, Wyeth Jayne, Flossie Letson, Marie Marcy, Elizabeth Moe, Graham Moxon, Minnie Nelson, Gladys Stark, Burt Willeford, Clarice Wilson.

Of course the Corona Club was there in full force of forty members strong. Although no formal program had been arranged, every one was happy to meet once more his old classmates, and the time was spent talking about old times.

An immense jar of punch and nearly ten pounds of fancy cookies, purchased with the Corona Bazaar money, served as refreshments.

Every one went home happy, thanking the Corona Club for making possible this grand reunion.—Reporter.
