That the population of Oregon is increasing very rapidly is indicated by the fact that an unusual number of communities have found it necessary to erect new school buildings to relieve congestion. The demonstration with the steam fire engine, which the city has in its possession for the present, attracted quite a number of our citizens to Philadelphia street last Friday evening. The demonstration was a decided success and proved that with a pumping engine the water supply is abundant, on Philadelphia street at least.

Measures Numerous

The voters of Oregon will pass on 24 amendments to the constitution and 13 bills at the November election.

More are being incubated, and there will probably be forty state wide propositions and perhaps twice as many local municipal measures.

Many of these bills will impose new burdens on the people, invent new taxes, create new boards and offices. Here are some of them:

To grant to "every person" a $1500 exemption on assessed valuation. Household goods are already exempt.

Two tax amendments to allow taxation of incomes, "proportional, graduated or progressive taxation," whatever that may be.

A sur-tax amendment of 5 cents per $100 on all above $25,000, and graduated to $8 per $100 on all above $100,000.

A tax on all land not public property. This would tax churches, colleges not owned by the state, and is in line with single tax ideas.

To create the office of Lieutenant Governor to be president of the Senate and get $10 a day when Legislature sits.

To abolish the Senate. By the State Grange, State Federation of Labor, the Peoples' Power League, authors of nearly all the freak legislation in Oregon.

To abolish the death penalty as a punishment for capital crimes.

To prohibit manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors except for medicinal purposes, or for scientific, sacramental or mechanical purposes.

To increase salary of members of the Legislature to $5 per day and mileage to 10 cents.

To authorize state bonds for construction of irrigation and water power projects by the state to amount of 2 per cent of state valuation.

To prohibit paid circulation of initiative and referendum petitions.

For non-partisan judiciary on petition of one per cent of the voters. Proportional representation by Grange, Peoples' Power League and Federation of Labor.

To authorize the Governor to remove from office county officials who fail to cooperate with him in enforcement of laws, and appoint others in their place.

To revoke franchises of Portland Gas and Coke Company, by Portland Central Labor Council. To take over channels of rivers and authorize leasing same to cities, and construction of public docks.

For eight hour day and ventilation of rooms for women workers.

Stringent Sunday law against all places of amusement for gain, by Washington County Christian Endeavor Union.

Universal eight hour day in factory or farm.

Special tax for employment of unemployed laborers.

Change election law requiring only fifteen days' residence in precinct.

Registration certificate to vote anywhere in the state.—State Bureau of Industries and Statistics.

In a Quandary

The State Tax Commission has taken a step that puts it in square collision with the Attorney General. It is well known that over half a million dollars of taxes are held to be uncollectible in the various counties in which the forfeited land grants in western Oregon are located.

Proceeding on the theory that the title to 2,167,900 acres of land embraced in the Oregon California land grant continues to be vested in the Oregon California Railroad Co. until the United States Supreme Court finally decides a suit instituted by the government to have the lands forfeited, the State Tax Commission has notified all Oregon assessors to assess the land in the name of the company.

Assessor B. F. Keeney of Lane county was surprised when notified of this action of the State Tax Commission. Only a short time ago he received an opinion from Attorney General Crawford, advising him not to assess these lands. "I am in a quandary," said the assessor. "I hardly know what to do. I am not decided as to who is 'boss' in this matter—whether the attorney general's advice is to be followed, or whether to obey the ruling of the State Tax Commission. If we put these lands on the roll we will have to pay our share of the state tax on them, yet we will get nothing from the property, as the railway company has refused to pay the taxes until the suit is settled. If we are compelled to assess this property this year, the county will lose a large sum of money by reason of the railway company's refusal to pay the tax."—Contributed.

Ready for Business

The Ochrida Turkish Bath Parlors in the basement of the Woodhouse building on Philadelphia street are now open to the public. F. W. Coffyn, a well known citizen, and a man who has had years of experience in the business, is proprietor. The word "Ochrida" is the name of a lake in Turkey, meaning "water," and Mr. Coffyn selected it as an appropriate and unique title for his bath parlors. The parlors are, indeed, a credit to the city. Everything is new and of the most approved design and pattern. The interior throughout is finished in white, denoting cleanliness, purity and sanitation.

The first room as one descends the few steps is the waiting room which is a well lighted and comfortable apartment. It is Mr. Coffyn's intention to utilize a portion of this room for manicuring, massaging, shampooing and hair dressing by an expert a little later on and possibly add foot dressing as well. At the rear of the waiting room, on one side, are two private compartments for tub baths, well fitted up with handsome tubs, towels, brushes and other accessories essential to the comfort and convenience of patrons. Next are two compartments for shower baths, furnished with all the conveniences and accommodations that go with such baths. Then are the appliances and apparatuses for Turkish steam baths, and baths can be either taken in whole or partially. Opposite the bathing arrangements is a long apartment in which three snow white coats repose, which present a most inviting appearance. These are for the purpose of putting the finishing touches to the steam bathers. In the rear of the basement are the massage table, lavatory, etc. Mirrors, dressers, brushes, combs, rugs and other adornments complete the establishment.

Madam Sula Gibson, a St. Johns, lady, will be lady assistant at the Ochrida. Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of each week have been set aside as ladies' day, when no males will be admitted. The new bath parlors promise to become most popular with St. Johns people, and the enterprise is deserving of much patronage.

A busy, joyous time is assured. —Reporter.

DON'T KNOW THEY HAVE APPENDICITIS

Many St. Johns people have chronic appendicitis (which is not very painful) and think it is just bowel or stomach trouble. Some have doctored for years for gas on the stomach, sour stomach or constipation and C. R. Thompson states if they will try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German appendicitis remedy, they will be surprised at the QUICK benefit. A SINGLE DOSE stops these troubles INSTANTLY.

M. E. Church Notes

Dr J. W. McDougall, District Superintendent of Portland District, occupied the pulpit last Sunday morning and delivered a most excellent sermon.

The installation service of the newly elected officers of the Senior and Junior Epworth Leagues last Sunday evening was a very beautiful and impressive service, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The installation was performed by the pastor, Rev. Ingalls.

The third quarterly conference for the conference year was held last Wednesday night. Dr. McDougall in the chair. The affairs of the church for the past nine months were carefully gone over, and all departments of the church were found to be in a prosperous and growing condition.

The following persons were elected and installed as officers in the Senior League; President, C. W. Little; first vice, Miss Hortense Ingalls; second vice, Miss Gladys Nolan; third vice, Miss Ida Daugherty; fourth vice, Miss Beulah Titus; secretary, Mrs. J. M. Blair; treasurer, Mrs. Louise Sterling; chorister, Miss Pearl Titus; organist, Miss Lulu Day.

The Quarterly Conference has confirmed Miss Hortense Ingalls as superintendent of the Junior League. The following persons were recently elected officers of the same: President, Miss Wilma Ingalls; first vice, Mr. Zelta Rice; second vice, Miss Ona Cooper; third vice, Miss Alice Rawson; fourth vice, Miss Alice Brown; secretary, Miss Geneva Short; treasurer, Miss Lillian Rawson; chorister, Mr. Jack Vinson; organist, Miss Miriam Clark.

A contest with friendly rivalry for new members has been going on in the Senior League for some time past, which has produced a greatly increased life and interest in the League work, and has been the means of bringing in a number of new members, and is also manifested in the earnest effort and preparation for the entertainment to be given in the Eagles' Hall Wednesday evening of July 8th. Don't fail to be there.

Regular services as usual Sunday. The electric light recently placed at the corner of South Hayes and West Leavitt streets is greatly appreciated by the people, and express appreciation to the city council.—Reporter.
