The burly prisoner stood unabashed before the judge. It was his first time in court before a jury. "Prisoner at the bar," asked the clerk, "do you wish to challenge any of the jury?" The prisoner looked them over carefully with a skilled eye. "Well," he replied, "I'm not exactly what you call in training, but I guess I could stand a round or two with that old geezer in the corner."—Exchange.

A number of the graduates of the St. Johns High, twelve young ladies and five young gentlemen, crossed the river to Whitwood last Friday and took the car bounded for Portland with a view to have photographs made of the class. They are the graduating class of James John High of 1914, and a prettier or more intelligent looking bunch never crossed the placid waters of the Willamette.—Linnton Leader.

The firemen, with their wives, sisters and sweethearts, 100 strong, in auto truck and touring cars, went to St. Helens on July 4th to participate in the celebration arranged by the St. Helens Volunteer Fire department. St. Johns defeated St. Helens in an organized water fight, but was defeated in the tug of war, five men on a side. A series of prize track events were pulled off. The six men relay race was won by St. Johns in an exciting finish. The boys were much pleased with the treatment accorded them at St. Helens, and expect a large delegation from that place here Labor Day.

Mr. Amesbury, the superintendent of the prison, was escorting a party of women visitors through the building. They entered a room where three women were busily sewing. As they turned to leave the room one of the visitors said: "What vicious looking creatures! What are they in for? They really look capable of committing any crime." "Well," replied the superintendent, "you see they have no other home. That is my private sitting room and they are my wife and two daughters."—Exchange.

A case in Judge Williams' court Wednesday afternoon, in which Chas. Linguist was plaintiff and Mrs. Oscar Edwards was defendant, was tried before a jury. Mr. Linguist sought to collect rent from the defendant for use of his store room near the car barns. The jury decided in the defendant's favor. Cap. Snow, Chipman and A. W. Markle. The verdict was later set aside for the veteran attorney, handled the case for Mr. Linguist, while City Attorney Parker looked after the defendant's interests. The jury was composed of W. R. Hollenbeck, P. T. Hanson, Wm. Edmondson, Geo. Gatton, L. B. The reason that only four of the six jurors had agreed to it.

Mrs. J. N. Keeler entertained the Debonair Club at her home, "Sunkana," Thursday afternoon last at a clover party. The house was prettily decorated with festoons and hanging baskets of clover blossoms with realistic looking butterflies hovering everywhere. The tables were decorated with baskets of the clover and the hand painted place cards carried out the scheme. In the clover hunt that followed the delicious luncheon, Mrs. Hiller was the lucky finder of the four leaf clover, and received the first prize, a handsome book. Mrs. Fones found the largest number of clover leaves and won the second prize, a clover shaped box of candy. All present had a delightful time.

Will Celebrate Labor Day

St. Johns will celebrate Labor Day, September 7th, in great style this year. It will be the first time in the city's history that anything of special interest has been pulled off on that day. The celebration will take the form of a Firemen's Tournament, and will be under the auspices of the local fire department, and every fire department in the entire Willamette Valley will be invited to participate. At least seven companies will compete for the prizes, of which there will be a number, and representatives from every company in the Valley are expected to be in attendance. The famous ladies' hose teams of Gresham and Astoria, it is said, will also be here and compete for prizes. C. S. Currin has been made president of the affair, which is a guarantee that there will be something of unusual interest occurring all day long. A campaign for funds will be inaugurated immediately, and it is hoped that all will give as generously as possible toward financing the project so that substantial and inviting prizes may be offered.

While all the details have not as yet been worked out, it is expected that this celebration will attract large numbers of people here. Let's all boost to make it the greatest event that has ever occurred in St. Johns.

M. E. Church Notes

The Epworth League entertainment at the Eagles' Hall on Wednesday evening was a very pleasant occasion, and every one enjoyed themselves. Much credit is due the young people for their efforts, and they take this occasion to express their appreciation to those friends who assisted them with several numbers on the program.

The Hon. Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City will speak next Sunday evening in the M. E. Church on temperance. Mr. Brownell knows whereof he speaks. Come and hear him. Services at 8 o'clock.

We are very thankful, indeed, for the safe and sane 4th. That there were no calls for surgeons, undertakers, preachers or grave diggers. But that every one enjoyed themselves, had a good time and are still sound and well.

Rev. J. A. Goode of the Evangelical church and his people will join in the service next Sunday evening at the M. E. church to hear Mr. Brownell.

Regular services next Sunday morning, Sunday School at 9:50, preaching at 11, Junior League at 6 p. m., Senior League at 7 p. m., and public service with Mr. Brownell's address at 8 o'clock. You are cordially invited to all of these services.—Reporter.

Villae to Appear Here

By a rare stroke of good fortune we are to have the pleasure of seeing a few more demonstrations of Dr. Villae's amazing power at the Multnomah Theatre. It will be a thing remembered for some time, his being at the Princess theatre about three years ago. In the three years he has been away Villae has made rapid strides toward the front ranks of his profession, having even worked for three months in a hospital in Milwaukee treating drug fiends, and in addition to his performance he promises an instructive treatise on the cure of the drug habit. From the Eastern press notices and personal recommendations of some prominent Eastern scientists, Villae must have an exhibition far eclipsing anything ever seen before. This being the open season in the amusement world, Villae brought his wife, who is a St. Johns girl, home for a visit, and hearing of some of the so-called hypnotic shows and expose of hypnotism seen here since, he has consented to set every one's mind at rest by a truthful and honest demonstration for next Monday and Tuesday, in which he invites the local doctors to test everything he does, for as he says, I consider St. Johns my home town now, and want to keep them from being imposed upon in the future. So let all give him a rousing reception at the Multnomah Monday and Tuesday nights, July 13-14.—Adv

Interesting Notes for the Library Patrons

Hours for July and August:
Afternoon—2:30 to 5:30.
Evening—7 to 9.
No Sunday opening.
During July and August the library will open at 2:30 instead of at 12. Otherwise the hours remain the same.
From July 15 to August 15 the library will be left in charge of Miss Hollenbeck.
Probably the most noteworthy magazine article of the month is "A Message to the Middle Class" by Seymour Deming in the July Atlantic Monthly. Don't miss it.
The library would appreciate donations of old illustrated magazines which it may utilize in building up its picture collection for use in the schools and in the library itself.
The library flower calendar was made especially attractive this week by the gift of a box of Indian Pipe sent from near Welch's on Mount Hood by Mrs. Geo. Jeffcott. The Indian Pipe or Ghost Flower came through in remarkably good condition considering its delicacy, and are still standing straight and white like fantastic icicles, as though they were still in their native woods.
New Books:
Flagg—Edmond Dantes.
The sequel to Alexander Dumas' celebrated novel of The Count of Monte Cristo.
Dunbar—Life and Works.
Paul Laurence Dunbar has, according to William Dean Howells, made the strongest claim for the negro in English literature that the negro has yet made. His father and mother were negroes without admixture of white blood. The father escaped from slavery in Kentucky to freedom in Canada, and the mother was freed by the Civil War. The son was born at Dayton, Ohio, in 1872, and grew up with such chances and mischances for mental training as everywhere befall the children of the poor. At the time that he began to write poetry, and for some time after, he worked as an elevator boy. To read this intimate story of his life makes one even more ready to enjoy his thoroughly enjoyable verse.
Evert—The Speaking Voice.
"Next to that primary instinct, the instinct for self preservation, the strongest impulse of the human heart is for self expression. The failure of society to provide simple and natural means of self preservation has led to the American anarchist. The failure of education to provide for the training of the simple and natural means of self expression has led to the American voice." In this book Miss Everts, who lately completed a course of lectures on the voice in Portland, gives a simple and condensed method of voice culture for the busy man and woman. Her claim is that faithful practice of these exercises for fifteen minutes a day will do much toward converting our high pitched, harsh, hard American instrument of torture into the low toned, efficient agent of personality it was intended by nature to be.
Maeterlinck—The Blue Bird for Children.
The well known play put into story form by Madame Maeterlinck.
