Homor Rundall, for the past year athletic director and instructor in Lick Academy, San Francisco, left for Iowa to take a principalship at Linden of that state, after a vacation spent in St. Johns at the home of his father, G. R. Rundall.

Fred Porter of Ashland, Oregon, stopped off a day or two last week with his old friend, Ex-mayor Bredeson, while en route for a visit to South Dakota. Mr. Porter and Mr. Bredeson are old time cronies, and the visit was much enjoyed by both.

M. G. Urban has agreed to accept the $200 offered by the city in settlement for land proposed to be used by the city for street purposes on St. Johns avenue. This will remove all obstructions for the improvement of this street, and steps will undoubtedly be taken at the next meeting of the city council to push the work along.

We desire to express our sincere thanks and deep appreciation to the city officials and citizens of St. Johns for their hearty cooperation and earnest support rendered toward the Tournament held in this city last Monday. It was only through their aid and assistance that the Tournament was the success it proved to be.—St. Johns Fire Department, by C. S. Currin, president.

Dr. Geo B. Hampton and wife of Spokane were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Valentine the first of the week, the latter being Mrs. Valentine's sister. Dr. Hampton was at one time a business man of St. Johns, but for the past few years he has been a practicing chiropractor at Spokane, where he met with splendid success. He has decided, however, to open up offices in Portland and reside there permanently.

The St. Johns ferry boat, which was to have been removed from St. Johns to Vancouver for the week, and substituted by a ferry boat from Goble, was not transferred. It was found by investigation of Mayor Vincent and Secretary of the Commercial Club Hiller, who made a trip to Goble, that the boat there was wholly inadequate and unfitted for service here. The County Commissioners were informed of the fact and the change was not made.

With the completion of the first unit of Astoria's sea wall, the unsightly tide flats in that city will soon have vanished. Eventually the sea wall will extend from Young's Bay to Tongue Point, protecting the entire river front. Filling in behind the wall will begin not later than Sept. 15, and the contract calls for completion not later than the first of next March. It is expected that the first unit of the new municipal docks will be ready for use by the first of the year.

Patronize home industry by having your laundry work done at the St. Johns laundry. There is no good reason why any laundry work should leave St. Johns. The workmanship, prices and delivery service of the local plant are equal to or better than the Portland laundries. Give it a trial and you will be convinced.

Linnton's high school pupils will attend the James John high school here this year. The application of the Linnton school board for the admission of about fifteen pupils of high school age was acted upon favorably at last meeting of the St. Johns school board.

The Tyler street case, which has been hanging fire in the courts for several years, was finally decided Wednesday in favor of the city, the courts upholding the dedication of the streets by Mrs. Nancy Caples, now deceased. The street is now ready for improvement proceedings to begin.

Mrs. E. S. Wright and three children of Helson, Wash., are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Markle. Mr. Wright is moving to Cooks Landing near the Little White Salmon river, Washington state, where he will engage in the mercantile business.

Chas. C. Woodhouse, Jr., well known in St. Johns, is now at Okanogan, Wash., where he is rendering great assistance in a fight against the removal of the county seat from Okanogan to Conconully. He is strongly opposed to the proposed removal, and in an appeal to the people tells in convincing terms why the removal should not take place, which was published in the Okanogan Independent last week. Mr. Woodhouse is also the author of a catchy piece of music extolling the beauties and natural advantages of Okanogan.

Today is St. Johns Day at the Vancouver Fair and Wild West Show. Special cars will leave this city at 9 a. m., returning at about 7 p. m. It is expected that the cars will be filled to their utmost capacity. The St. Johns folks will take their lunches and have a regular St. Johns picnic. The Commercial Club has provided badges for the ladies and hat bands for the gentlemen, and the St. Johns delegation will undoubtedly have a splendid time. A number of the stores will be closed for the day so that the business men may attend.

We are glad indeed to have Mrs. Kerr with us again after her long absence.—Reporter.

Mrs. J. C. Scott was happily surprised last Friday afternoon, when Dr. W. B. Scott and family drove up to the door in their machine. They had made the trip in just twelve hours from Seattle and enjoyed it very much, but the real happy time came when they arrived at the old home and the other children gathered in Sunday at dinner. They all sat down together at the table, the first time for nine years. Mother, daughter, three sons, two daughters-in-law and three grandchildren, ten in all.

The contract for the superstructure of Astoria's big municipal docks, the finest on the Pacific Coast, has been let to an Astoria contractor for the sum of $128,350. This is the third contract awarded on the structure, the first and second being for the total sum of $340,000 for piling and dredging. The new docks are being built under the direction of the Port of Astoria Commission, and the present contracts include the first two units only. The entire project will approximate one million dollars.

Virgil Jones, the 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Burns Jones, was the victim of a painful accident Monday, having his arm broken and mangled by the shaft of a motor supplying the home of Dr. E. E. Ferguson in the Belmont district. The young man was making some adjustments to the motor when his arm was caught. A portion of his hand was torn away and the thumb was left hanging merely by two strong tendons. Mr. Jones was taken to the Cottage hospital, where he is making a rapid recovery.—Hood River Glacier. Virgil was press boy at the Review office for a time several years ago.

First Aide to Cupid

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, who banished John Barleycorn from the United States Navy, and who is the author of a number of important reforms in his department since his appointment to office, is now shown in the role of first aide to Dan Cupid, and in promoting the course of true love, has selected a Mare Island man and a Vallejo girl for his good work.

Some time back orders came to the navy yard for Hospital Steward R. G. Rogers to take a draft of insane patients back to the Naval Hospital at Washington. The orders were somewhat disturbing to the plans of Rogers, who was making ready for his wedding the last of the month, and when friends of the prospective groom, outside of the service, explained the situation to Mr. Daniels, that official promptly excused Rogers and appointed E. T. Gardner for the Washington trip.

Who is the bride? The young lady refused absolutely to reveal her identity, stating that it had been planned to announce the wedding day after it occurred, but the curious can probably be accommodated by ringing up 266 on the telephone.—Vallejo, Cal., Times.

Notice of Meeting of County Board of Equalization

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, September 14, 1914, the Board of Equalization of Multnomah County will attend at the office of the County Assessor, at the Court House in Portland, and publicly examine the assessment rolls for the year 1914, and correct all errors in valuation, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property, assessed by the County Assessor. And it shall be the duty of persons interested to appear at the time and place appointed. If it shall appear to such Board of Equalization that there are any lands or lots or other property assessed twice, or incorrectly assessed as to description or quantity, and in the name of a person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond the actual full cash value thereof, said Board may make proper correction of the same. If it shall appear to such Board that any land, lots or other property assessable by the Assessor are not assessed, such Board shall assess the same at the full cash value thereof.

HENRY E. REED,
County Assessor.
