The war situation is still most distressing. The blood that is being shed and manhood destroyed is simply appalling. It is too horrible to fully realize, and it is to be sincerely hoped that the end of it all will soon be in sight.

The Review has decided to take neither side on the prohibition question, deeming it not policy to do so when it is the only newspaper in this field. But in order that both sides may have an opportunity to present their arguments, any citizen that has anything to say on the subject can present it under his own name and it will be published. We have requests from both sides for advertising space, and thus each side will be presented in paid advertisements. No partiality will be shown to either the "wets" or the "drys." Editorially the paper will remain neutral.

It would seem that neither the county coroner nor any one else should take it upon themselves to remove a dead body from St. Johns to Portland without the consent of the relatives of the deceased. Yet last week in the case of the drowning of Mr. Lindly, his wife wanted the remains left here, but by some one's orders it was taken to Portland, and as a result it cost her six dollars to have it retransferred to St. Johns. It was not a case for a coroner's inquest, when the evidence was plain of accidental death. As a matter of fact the city of St. Johns should be supplied with grappling hooks for cases of emergency.

WATCH THIS PAPER FOR THE TRUTH ABOUT PROHIBITION
Here is the exact issue that confronts you
The prohibitionists ask you to adopt an amendment to the State Constitution to prohibit the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, except for medical, mechanical and sacramental uses.
The adoption of this amendment means the entire wiping out of the present splendid home rule and local option laws.
Thereafter the regulation and control of the liquor traffic in Oregon would pass from cities and towns and be retained exclusively by the state.
Note carefully there is no mention of prohibiting "distribution," "transportation" or "use" of alcoholic beverages. Only of manufacture and sale. Distribution, transportation and use intentionally were left out by the prohibitionists. Shipment of liquors into the state, or through the state, or drinking of liquors within the state would not be prohibited by the amendment.
Washington, Idaho and California naturally would immediately begin shipping liquor into Oregon and throughout Oregon. The saloon, where it now exists, would merely have given away to the "blind pigger," "bootlegger" and "moonshiner." All cities and towns now either wet or dry would be at the mercy of the state police authorities and state law makers.
Present "dry" cities and towns would realize that they had come nearer to voting themselves "wet" than they now are under the splendid home rule and local option laws.
If the state authorities were derelict or failed to enforce the law, as they are in Kansas and Maine, the cities and towns would realize that they had voted away their present direct control and regulation of the liquor traffic. These articles will show later that Kansas and Maine authorities are derelict and do fail to enforce the law. To undo the mistake Oregon would have to repeal a constitutional amendment and not a mere law—a very difficult undertaking. Deceit and perjury in securing liquor illegally would have been substituted for what today is a steadily improving, healthier public opinion regarding true temperance, and true temperance would have been done an irreparable injury requiring many years to recover from.
Kansas is pointed to by prohibitionists as the model prohibition state. They want Oregon to become a Kansas. Watch these articles with a fair, open mind and learn what thirty-three years of prohibition law has done for Kansas without prohibiting or advancing true temperance.

All figures will be taken from latest United States Government Reports
N. B.—Prohibitionists are spreading the opinion that, if the proposed amendment is defeated, the present dry towns and cities will become wet again. This POSITIVELY IS NOT SO. The present home rule and local option laws would remain just as they now are.
