The U. S. Government is taking no chances on the introduction of contagious diseases as a result of war conditions in Europe. Federal authorities along the coast in the immigration, revenue, sanitary, army and navy departments are enforcing rigid inspection.—Ex.

At an election held in Roseburg recently the voters of that city authorized the issuance of bonds to the amount of half a million dollars with which to assist in the construction of a railroad from Roseburg to Coos Bay. A railroad commission consisting of ten business men of the city was provided for at the same election.

If you want your laundry work done in the neatest, nicest and best possible manner, send it to the local laundry. No effort is spared to give the most perfect satisfaction and deliveries are made promptly. There is no good reason why any laundry work should go out of St. Johns. Portland laundries do no better work, have no cheaper prices, nor call for and deliver work with more celerity than the St. Johns laundry. Why not aid in building up a home institution?

The Hill roads announce that their fast steamship line between Astoria and San Francisco will open for business by the time the exposition opens in February. The crafts will be the fastest boats that have ever been built, and it is claimed, will make the run on practically the same time by water as is made by rail between Portland and San Francisco. Work on the docks and terminal facilities at Astoria is progressing rapidly and the ship building concerns having the contracts for the new boats announce that they will be finished on schedule time.

The St. Johns foot ball team is out this year as strong as they were last year. They made a fine showing last year, losing only one game. They have played two games this season, winning the first 6 to 0 against Columbia Park, and the second was 0 to 0 against Albina. Sunday, the 25th, they will play Overlook at the Hill grounds at 2:30, rain or shine.

Registration of voters was extended two days in Multnomah county. Estimates are now being made by the politicians on the probable vote this year in Oregon, owing to the first general election under the women's suffrage law. The best authorities consider that 225,000 votes will probably be the highest cast. Some place it was low as 205,000. The former figure is very likely to be nearer the truth.

Mr. Val Knauf of Prescott, Columbia county, and Mrs. Rufina P. Reece of this city, were joined in matrimony Monday, October 19th, at 8:30 p. m. at 700 Mohawk street, St. Johns, in the presence of a few intimate friends, by Rev. G. W. Nelson. A Pretty Wedding

Mr. Paul Henry Cochran and Miss Gladys Irene Garvin were united in holy wedlock on Tuesday, October 20th, 1914, at the home of the bride's parents, 904 North Central avenue, St. Johns, Ore. Rev. G. W. Nelson, officiating. The wedding march was played by Veal Fahey, a little niece of the bride. The Garvin home was tastefully decorated for the event.

Thomas L. Cochran, a brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen and Miss Lucile E. Whelan served as bridesmaid. The bride was beautifully gowned in white and carried in her hand a bouquet of white carnations. A large number of relatives witnessed the ceremony. After congratulations had been extended all partook heartily of a most bountiful and delicious wedding supper.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cochran, and a member of the Cochran-Nutting Company and its treasurer. A young man of good character, capable and industrious, he is highly respected by a large circle of friends.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Garvin. She is a young lady of attractive appearance and genuine worth and has, by her many excellent traits and happy disposition, endeared herself to a large circle of friends. She has for some time been in the employ of Lipman, Wolf and Company. She was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and valuable gifts. After a visit in Seattle and other Puget Sound points the happy young couple will make their home on South Jersey street, St. Johns. May the happiness and prosperity that worthy young people deserve be theirs.

The Beaver has been 'on the dry docks' for the past several days for repainting and slight repairs.

Governor West addressed an overflow meeting at the city hall last evening on issues pertinent to the present campaign.

The Bachelor Club handed it out to Paul Cochran last night. Paul just recently jumped the ranks of the Bachelors to become a Benedict. He was captured and placed in a small wire cage with a large bear skin huddled close around him, and hauled around the streets in the guise of a caged bear. Surmounted upon the vehicle which bore him around the thoroughfares was an improvised band that rendered some almost impossible strains, but attracted many citizens to the streets. Paul was game, however, and took his treatment in the best possible good humor.
