

CENSORSHIP

way or manner treats immoral or criminal characters represented in such books, papers, periodicals or publications in a heroic manner whose acts are immoral, criminal or indecent and by the doing of the acts therein would create in persons reading such books, papers, periodicals or publications a desire to do the same for the purpose of publicity, fame, notoriety or self gratification or that treats morality, virtue, order or things that are elevating or uplifting as secondary to immorality, vice, crime or things that tend to degrade or lower the standard of decency or result in disorder or lawlessness. This section is not intended to effect the free use and sale of any standard book, periodical, paper or publication recognized as such now published or which may be published or circulated, but is intended to suppress the circulation of all cheap or inferior publications of whatsoever name, nature or character.

That no shooting gallery shall be permitted to use any form representing a human being or human face as a target to be shot at in any gallery.

That immediately after the selection or appointment of the persons constituting the Board of Censorship, they shall make a division of their number into four equal divisions of three members each, numbering each division first, second, third and fourth, respectively. Each division is hereby authorized and empowered to pass upon all things and matters herein contained, and its acts shall be taken and deemed the act of the entire Board, except as provided in Section 9. The first division hereby authorized shall immediately take up the duties of their office and perform the same for a period of not more than two weeks, when the members of the second division shall relieve the members of the first division, and so on until all shall have served, and likewise continuing in consecutive order during the entire period for which they have been appointed. Should any of the members constituting any division as herein provided for any cause be unable to act with the member or members of his or her division, the member or members acting shall call to his, her or their aid members from either of the other divisions a sufficient number to constitute the full number of a division, the consent or a permit given and signed by a majority of the division acting will be necessary and shall be required in all cases.

An appeal may be taken to the Board of Censorship Commissioners by either the management of any motion picture show, theatre or vaudeville or by any person or persons affected by this ordinance. Said appeal shall be made in writing setting forth in a clear and concise manner the objections to the ruling of the Board, which appeal shall be heard and determined by a majority of the said Board, which determination shall be final.

That said Board or any of the members thereof shall have the right to enter at any time any theatre, moving picture show or other place of amusement for the purpose of determining whether or not any of the provisions of this ordinance is being violated.

That upon complaint being made by the said Board for any violation of this ordinance shall be punished upon conviction in the Municipal Court by a fine of not to exceed $200, or by imprisonment in the city jail for a period not to exceed fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, provided that each exhibition of any film or performance, speech, sale or distribution of any book, periodical, paper or publication prohibited by Section 6, or other thing required to be approved, and which has not been approved by the Board shall constitute a separate violation of this ordinance.
