There's a tremendous relief in the statement of a woman writer that the American government needn't worry about an army—that every American girl over 15 is practiced in the use of powder, and a call to arms is all she wants.—Ex.

F. K. Miller and daughter of Friend, Oregon, were guests of Postmaster Monahan the first of the week. Mr. Miller was the first postmaster in St. Johns after the office was moved to the top of the hill and situated where the Peninsula National Bank is now located.

That private property cannot be condemnded for private irrigation or water power purposes, was a decision handed down by the circuit court at Albany last week, the court contending that such action would be an infringement of the constitutional rights of owners of property.

The operations of the Helix division of the Farmers' Union resulted in an actual saving of an average of $109 to each of its 100 members during the past season. This saving was accomplished by economy in the purchase of grain bags, binders twine and other supplies. At its Helix ware houses the association handled 271,501 sacks of wheat.

George Hines, colored, who formerly worked as shoe shiner at Gilmore's barber shop, was arrested on a charge of abstracting five dollars from the barber shop till and also stealing some cigarettes from the cigar case Sunday morning. He had a hearing in Judge Williams' court Monday and was bound over to the grand jury. Deputy District Attorney Robinson prosecuted the case.

Attorney Perry C. Stroud made a splendid plea for the establishment of grades on all streets in the city before the city council Tuesday evening. He pointed out the fact that the city would save considerable money by having this work done, and would be a great convenience to citizens building on streets where the grade is not now established. The idea is a fine one, and should not be lost track of.

As a portion of Oregon's display at the Panama Exposition next year, ten car loads of products of this state will be shipped south within a few days under the auspices of the Willamette Valley Exposition Association. Already 164 boxes of apples have been forwarded and will be promptly installed in the Oregon building. Fifty thousand booklets will be printed for distribution at the exposition, containing articles regarding the resources of the Valley.

Engineer Laurgaard, in charge of the Tumalo irrigation project, has announced that this project is now complete and that applications for the lands are being received in great numbers. The entire project embraces 22,500 acres of irrigible land, about 6,000 acres of which has already been contracted for. The lands are being sold in 40 acre tracts at $40 per acre, one-tenth of the price to be paid at once, the balance in ten installments. The settler, by irrigating one-third of his land each year for three year, can defer the annual payments for those three years, enabling him to apply the money to the improvement of the land. Storage of water in the big reservoir was commenced Dec. 5th.

The tax levy in St. Johns this year is fifteen per cent lower than last year. A reduction of one and one-half mills was made in the school levy, and one mill in the city levy. Of the city levy the Cooperage roadway, city dock and new fire equipment and maintainance are responsible for about three mills.

"Your husband has been ill", said the caller. "Yes," replied the little, worried looking woman, "he's been feeling very badly. I do my best to please him, but nothing seems to satisfy him." "Is his condition critical?" "It's worse than critical," she answered, with a sigh; "it's abusive."—Ex.

Of the forty-two foreign nations participating in the Panama Exposition the latest to prepare plans for government pavilions are Switzerland and Norway. The Swiss pavilion will be of the charlet style characteristic of the Alps. A 95 foot tower is the denomating feature of the Norwegian pavilion.

While a Denver physician was inspecting an insane hospital at Pueblo an inmate approached him, and asked: "I beg your pardon, sir, but have you a piece of toast?" "No," replied the doctor, in surprise, "but I can get a piece if you want it badly." "Oh, I wish you would. I'm a poached egg and I want to sit down."—Tradesman.

The contract has been let for the construction of the Texas building at the Exposition. The style of the building is reminiscent of the state capitol. It is surmounted by an 85 foot dome on which is a heroic figure holding aloft a great star, emblematic of the Lone Star State. There are now forty-four states and territories participating in the Exposition.

The Quid Libet Club entertained their husbands and friends at an elaborate luncheon at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Currier on East Chicago street Tuesday evening. This was the second of a series of luncheons the members are giving to their friends during the season. There were twenty-four persons present. Every one spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gesler entertained on Thanksgiving with a perfectly appointed dinner at their new home on G street. The table was centered with a bowl of beautiful yellow and white chrysanthemums, and a lovely course dinner was served. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Rambo of St. Johns, Oregon, and their two daughters, Dr. Lasher from Oakville, and Mr. Jerome Whistler.—Centralia Chronicle Examiner.

The Oregon Grape Club (Women of Woodcraft) will hold their bazaar in the building formerly occupied by Mrs. Schultz' Milinery store Tuesday, December 15. Articles useful and ornamental will be on sale at prices to suit all purchasers. Those wishing to place goods on the commission table are requested to bring them early Tuesday morning for proper registry. Lunch will be served. Come and have a good time.—Secretary.

William O'Shea, an employe of the Cowlitz Bridge Company, while doing construction work at the new Cooperage plant, was seriously injured when he fell from a beam 20 feet to the water below, striking his head on a piling. His skull was fractured. He was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

C. W. Corby has recently taken offices with City Attorney Parker, in the Holbrook building. Mr. Corby is an old friend of Mr. Parker, who speaks of him in the highest terms as a lawyer and dependable citizen. For the past few years Mr. Corby has been practicing his profession in Portland and Salem. The people of St. Johns will be glad to welcome Mr. Corby and wife to our midst.

The North School of St. Johns Parent-Teachers' Association met Thursday afternoon. Christmas songs were sung by first and second grade pupils, followed by sixth and seventh grade songs. An interesting paper was read by Mrs. V. W. Mason entitled, "When Does a Mother's Influence Begin?" This was followed by a discussion of the paper. The attendance was good and the occasion greatly enjoyed.

Prophetic Lectures by Evangelist Milton H. St. John—"A Feast of Good Things." Menu for the week: Sunday, Dec. 13—"War Between a Ram and He-Goat." Monday, "Unto 2300 years, then shall the Sanctuary be Cleansed." Tuesday, "When Will the World's Judgment Begin?" Wednesday, "The Supreme Court of the Universe in Session." Thursday, "God's Looking Glass." Friday, "The Christian Sabbath." Saturday, no meeting. You are invited. Song service, 7:45; sermon 8:00.

The first community sing in St. Johns was successfully given last Friday evening at the James John High school under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Coovert, supervisor of music in the public schools. A large audience was present and enjoyed the numbers rendered, although it is said some regret was expressed that more of the old time songs were not sung. The program was as follows: Vocal solo, selected, Mrs. Albert Johnson; song, "Barcarole" from "Tales of Hoffman," and "Absent," Teachers Glee Club, composed of the Misses Romig, Parmely, Villivieve, Rogers, Clark, Rush, Crouch, McNiven, McPherson and Mesdames Weeks and Creecraft; song, Omnipresence, by pupils of 8th and 9th Grammar grades; song, Carmena, High School Mixed chorus; selection, by orchestra under the leadership of S. E. Hunter. Several old time selections were given which were greatly appreciated by the audience.

According to the announcement elsewhere in this paper, the Peninsula National Bank will again open a Christmas Savings Club, Monday December 21, and after that date. The club which was organized last March at this Bank and now being brought to a close, has proven most popular. Quite a number entered the class for the purpose of saving money for Christmas, and as a result the Bank will pay out $2500 to the members of the class. The Bank has provided handsomely embellished Christmas checks for the members of the class just closing. The amounts of the savings range from $10.50 to $50, and in most cases was saved with little effort. Many of the members have expressed themselves as highly pleased with the plan, and are now congratulating themselves upon the fact that they enlisted as members. The Christmas club scheme is a splendid one. It encourages and developes the saving habit, and gives the members a tidy little sum at Christmas time that otherwise would probably have been expended. The new club promises to be even more popular than the initial one, and many of the old members will repeat the experiment with the new class. The Bank pays four per cent interest on these savings. Musings of a School Boy

My maw sez thet a feller ort
Tu be made hard tu ketch,
Ef he won't go tu schol' and larn
Tu rede an' rite an sech.

My maw sez I'd be lik' my paw
Not 'mount tu a hill o' beans,
Ef she 'ud let me do lik' him
Set 'round an' eat an' dream.

So when I buck an'stay tu hume,
I allus git a lickin'
And I tell you my maw kin hit
Jest lik' a mule a kickin'.

I don't mine' tu go tu schol' so bad
When the sun ez not ashinin'
But on such days 'ith droopin' head
For woods an' sloughs I'm pinin'.

I kin set in my seat an' see the bass
A leapin' in the sun
An' the stripes along their flashy sides
I kin count 'em one by one.

An' in schol' sometimes when I've a min'
Tu set lik' pop an dream'
I hev strange thot's ef keeried out
'Ud be a larpin' skeeme.

Jest spose thet I when none wus lookin'
'Ud git a sudden notion
Tu up an' grab my lil' schol' mam
An' go dashin' fur the ocean.

An' when I git thar jump rite in
An' go splashin' rite across
'Till I git neer where the Marineer
Up an' shot the Albatross.

An' thar we'll live in peace
It kint be done ye say
My lil' schol'mam she allus sed
Thar's a will where thar's a way.

An' in this case thar'll be tu wills
'Cause I know thet she lik' me
Cause on my map the other day
She gim me ninety-three.
