

A Fine Appointment

The mercantile world from coast to coast will be surprised and gratified at the announcement that Mr. George B. Caldwell of Chicago, Illinois, one of the country's most prominent bankers and investment authorities, a man of unquestioned ability and success, has accepted the Presidency of the Sperry and Hutchinson Company, the largest est premium concern in the world, as well as the presidency of The Hamilton Corporation, its subsidiary company.

George B. Caldwell, of Chicago, newly elected President of the Sperry and Hutchinson Co. and the Hamilton Corporation.

It is most fitting that a man of Mr. Caldwell's recognized worth should have been selected for this important post and in being prevailed upon to accept it, he steps from a position of great importance in the banking world to one of supreme importance in the mercantile world.

Mr. Caldwell is a big man in both stature and achievement. He has been associated with the country's most powerful and influential men in the financing of many large railroad and commercial projects. Starting life as a farmer's boy, he has climbed the ladder of success by his own effort and on his own merit.

As President of the Investment Bankers' Association of America he has been a vital prominent figure in the financial world and in accepting the Presidency of the famous Sperry & Hutchinson Company he resigns among other important posts his Vice Presidency of the Continental Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago, the largest financial institution in the West and the second largest bank in the United States.

The premium business in this country has been growing by leaps and bounds in the past few years and Mr. Caldwell succeeds as President of the largest premium giving company in the world, the late T. A. Sperry, founder of The Sperry & Hutchinson Company, and the father of the premium idea, in which over $100,000,000 of capital is employed in the United States today.

Mr. Caldwell as President of the Sperry & Hutchinson Company and The Hamilton Corporation will occupy a commanding position in the premium business and there is not the slightest doubt but that under his able direction this already enormously strong organization with its 500 or more stores stretching from coast to coast will grow and expand.

There are now millions of people who are S. & H. Green Stamp and Hamilton Coupon collectors throughout the country and other millions will unquestionably begin the collection of stamps and coupons when they realize that this pioneer stamp giving company is entering upon a new era of progress and expansion under the guidance of a man recognized throughout the land for his business ability, his integrity and his honor.
