An ornery pup was Ignatz Grand. His conduct is distressing; He went into the kitchen, and He watched the salad dressing. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

He rambles through the house at will And no one's pardon begs; He went into the dining room And saw the table's legs. —Temple (Tex.) Telegram.

A naughty dog is Ignatz Grand. He really is too flip; He stood upon the doorstep and He saw the weather strip. —Louisville Herald.

Ignatz, the dirty dog bereft Of friends was quite forlorn. But not alone; when August left He saw September morn.

The slit skirt fashion reached the farm. When Ignatz with a maid, Discovered that the milkmaid's charm Was calf—but not the cow's. —Goodwin's Weekly.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, That on the 15th day of September, 1914, property owners fronting and abutting upon South Decatur street between Burlington and Richmond streets filed herein a petition setting forth the necessity of a change in grade on the said South Decatur street, and it appearing from said petition and from the facts and circumstances now existing with reference thereto, that the request of the petitioners should be allowed. Therefore,
It is resolved by the City of St. Johns:
That the grade heretofore established on the said Decatur street, between Burlington and Richmond streets, be, and the same is hereby, changed to conform to the grades now established on the said Burlington and Richmond streets, and according to the maps, plats, survey and profile of J. O. Burson, city engineer, now on file in the office of the city recorder of said city of St. Johns, Oregon.
Adopted by the council this 8th day of December, 1914.
A. E. DUNSMORE,
Recorder.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN ST. JOHNS

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, the German appendix remedy. C. R. Thompson, druggist, states that this simple remedy antiseptizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that A SINGLE DOSE removes sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. If all the People in St. Johns would spend all their Money in St. Johns just one week,

Christmas week, there would be an impetus here that would make people on the outside sit up and take notice. Why not just try it one week?

Our store is supplied with anything reasonable required for living except furniture.

For the Christmas Tree at home we have provided a range of games that will make your children want to remain at home instead of on the street.

We have provided substantial gifts for any member of the family.

A gift need not be an expensive item. The spirit makes the gifts, and just now a present of comfortable wearing apparel would be the present practicable.

Is there another place in U. S. where the scenery is grander than that which surrounds St. Johns?

Is there another place where the business interests and individuals respond more readily to appeals of Charity? Is there any place of our size where there are fewer arrests for viciousness?

But there are other things needed: better stores, better streets, better homes.

To get them, to embellish the scenery, to encourage the response to charity, we need your patronage; not the Men's Toggery particularly but the whole of St. Johns Business District.

We will agree to increase our stock, beautify our store with modern fixtures and spend all our profit right here in St. Johns if St. Johns will give the Men's Toggery the opportunity to grow.

Do not be deceived about prices, we know what goods of equal quality sell for other places and we dare not impose upon you. That Christmas Tie, Shirt, Suspenders, Hosiery, Shoes, Suit of Clothes. Let us sell them to you for your Christmas.
