ORDINANCE NO. 646

ORDINANCE TO AMEND SECTIONS I AND II OF ORDINANCE 610.

"An Ordinance providing for the muzzling of dogs and declaring dogs not securely kept muzzled to be a public nuisance and declaring an emergency to exist and repealing all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict therewith."

The City of St. Johns does ordain as follows:

Section I. It shall be the duty of the owner or person having possession or control of any dog within the limits of the City of St. Johns to keep the same muzzled or inclosed in a good and sufficient inclosure during the months of June, July, August and September in such a manner that will insure safety to persons or animals from being bitten by any such dog.

The muzzle to be used shall be made of wire or other suitable substance, and so adjusted about the head and mouth to insure safety to persons or animals from being bitten by such dog.

Section II. That divers cases of rabies have been found to exist among dogs in the City of St. Johns, Portland and elsewhere, and it is found that it is necessary for the protection of the public peace and health that dogs should not be permitted to run at large without being muzzled during the months of June, July, August, and September of each year.

Therefore all dogs found outside of an inclosure, as heretofore provided or running at large within the City of St. Johns, without being safely and securely muzzled, as herein provided, are hereby deemed and declared to be a public nuisance.

Section III. That the Chief or other police officer, upon the discovery of any dog hereby declared to be a public nuisance, is hereby directed to immediately remove and abate any such nuisance by killing, executing or otherwise disposing of any such dog.

Section IV. That inasmuch as the public peace and health of the city demand that immediate action be taken for its protection and that there is no provision by which nuisances as herein declared may be abated, an emergency is therefore declared to exist, and this ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Passed by the Council This 9th of March 1915.

Approved by the Mayor This 10th day of March 1915.

The local firemen were called to Portsmouth Sunday night at about 12:15 to quench a fire at the home of Mrs. Jamile Apach, 1469 Macrum avenue, but the call was late in being given, and by the time the truck got there the house was in ruins. A strange thing about the fire was that the Portsmouth fire department did not know anything about it until the next morning, it is said. But that is the difference between the fire system in that end of Portland and St. Johns. No wonder the people of Portsmouth and University Park would be glad to consolidate with St. Johns, so these places can get something.

What Merger Means

A possibility of losing our high school.

It means greater burden upon property owners in street improvements. St. Johns pays excess over 50 per cent. Portland assessments are unlimited.

It means property owners will be compelled at once to connect with sewers.

It means that no building can be remodeled or built without inspection causing delay and great expense.

It means your cows will be impounded over in Portland. It means you will be controlled by the big interests.

Commercial Club Doings

The Commercial club held its monthly meeting Wednesday evening in the club rooms. After the business of the club had been transacted, A. S. Benson gave an interesting talk on good roads, and Samuel C. Lancaster, consulting engineer for Multnomah county, gave an illustrated descriptive talk on the Columbia Highway. Mr. Lancaster had a series of natural color slides of scenery along this famous roadway, and the talks and pictures were well worth while seeing. Mr. J. B. Yeon expected to be present and give an address, but was unable to do so. The proposed bond issue of $1,250,000 for hard surfacing roads in Multnomah Co., was endorsed by the board of governors after the meeting. The lectures were well attended. A social party followed, in which dancing and games were indulged in.

The delegation from the Commercial club, Mayor Vincent and owners of factory and other industrial plants along the water front met with the county commissioners Wednesday in regard to having a fire pump established on the ferry boat. Much encouragement was received, and the probabilities are that the apparatus will be installed in the near future.

C. E. Garlick was added as member to the club Tuesday. The committee on the Celilo canal celebration May 6th was authorized to arrange for decorating the river boats and water front, more particulars of which will appear later.

The co-operative cannery at Newberg paid to farmers of that region $24,454 last year, practically all of it for produce which would otherwise have been lost. The cannery made a net profit of about $3,000, which was better than expected for the first year. Co-operative establishments of this kind are likely to prove the salvation of thousands of Oregon farmers.

The Parent-Teachers' meeting last Tuesday afternoon was very interesting.

Uncle Sam is waging a relentless war on the deadly house fly and in a late bulletin prepared by the Department of Agriculture, valuable information is given on the best means of combating this deadly pest. The most effective way of exterminating the fly according to the bulletin is to eradicate his breeding places. The breeding season of the fly begins early in March and continues throughout the spring and summer months. All dirt should be removed from the premises, stables cleaned and decaying vegetables destroyed. The fly has rightly been called the undertaker's traveling salesman, and in addition to his regular line of "typhoid bugs," he carries a side line of tuberculosis, Asiatic Cholera and other disease germs. Now is the time to "swat the fly."
