SAN-TOX.

Send in your news items. It will be St. Johns for about 28 days yet.

J. E. Kilkenny, registered electrical contractor, Col. 92.

The Cozy Corner confectionery store on North Jersey street has discontinued business.

Wilbur and Gordon Bellinger, having finished their first year at Corvallis, have returned to St. Johns.

Call at 107 S. Jersey Street and get a pamphlet on "Wiring an already built house." Free for the asking.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the many kind friends for their sympathy in our bereavement.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davidson.

T. F. Levens, who has been at Latourelle Falls, Oregon, for the past couple of months, returned to St. Johns the first of the week.

Mrs. R. Confer of Martin's Bluff, Wash., has been a guest of her daughters, Mrs. J. B. Clulow, Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. L. C. Bugbee, for the past month.

The treatment accorded the meter proposition in Portland Monday is a good indication of what we may expect when Portland is called upon to furnish Bull Run water to St. Johns.

The manner of voting on Commissioners in Portland seems to be an entirely unnecessary complication. First, second and third choices should be eliminated in favor of a straight cut proposition.

John Peterson has opened up a neat little grocery and confectionery store in the room formerly occupied by Overstreet's plumbing establishment on South Jersey, opposite the Central school building. John is well known and well liked by the people of St. Johns, and will no doubt prosper nicely in his new venture.

Now if the street car company would provide cross seats on the St. Johns line there would surely be no objection. It is no pleasure to sway on the side seats from one side to the other like an intoxicated person every time the car stops. And then one gets rather tired of gazing into the countenance of the person occupying a seat opposite. Give us cross seats instead of the side seats, Mr. Street Car Company.

The Carrie Jacobs Bond Musical club met with May Elizabeth Harney, 915 South Decatur street, Saturday, June 5th, for an all day picnic. This crowd of interesting little girls is under the direction of Mrs. Carrie R. Beaumont of Portland, she being a life long friend of Mrs. Bond.

The club has a membership of fifteen, all being of Portland with the exceptions of Katherine Bonham and May E. Harney of St. Johns. A big jittyey carried the little ladies, chaperoned by their mothers, to the Harney home. A fine program was given, assisted by Mrs. May Will Bush, dramatic reader, and Mrs. W. W. Rogers of Spokane, soprano. After a fine luncheon, the little ones made merry on the lawn and in the woods until the call came to go home.

The K. L. C. E. Society of the Evangelical Church held their monthly business meeting Friday evening, June 4th, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Fletcher on South Jersey Street. This being the close of the year's work for the society, the election of officers took place and the same officers were installed for the ensuing year: Mrs. Maude Hall, President, Bert Johnson, Vice President, Nellie Early, Secretary, and Emma Somers, Treasurer. After the short business session a Strawberry Social was held on the lawn. Music and all sorts of outdoor games made the evening a lively one for the large number present. The Sans Dieu Riens are planning on a Country Fair to be given about the 16th of this month.—S. D. R. Reporter.

The children of St. Clement's parochial school, St. Johns, will terminate their school year on next Thursday evening, June 17th, with an entertainment in the school hall, beginning at eight o'clock. In addition to the musical features, a brief comedy entitled "Woman's Rights," will be presented, and a forty-five minute drama, "My aunt's heir," will be staged. The evening's program has been very carefully prepared, and with a large audience that is always present on such occasions.

Owing to the delay in arriving a telephone installed and arrival of account books we will not be able to begin active business operations for a few days. Will have most of the accounts transferred to the Ideal Grocery by Saturday, June 12th, and will then do all soliciting and business in general from that place. We wish to thank those that so kindly assisted us during the Grand Opening and also the public for the orderly manner in which they acted under the crowded circumstances. New Telephone is Col. 130, Ideal Grocery, 202 S. Jersey.—Alex. S. Seales.

The Ladies' Progressive Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Page, Thursday, June 3rd. The study of Hawthorne was continued. Mrs. Shafer gave his life. Mrs. York told the story of the Scarlet Letter. A drawing contest was held and Mrs. Bredson won the first prize and Mrs. White the second. As more interest and enthusiasm are shown at each meeting our work will be continued during the summer. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Shafer, 908 Smith Ave., June 17, at which time the study of Oliver Wendell Holmes will be taken up.
