

Warm Bedding For Cold Weather

Prices Low Terms Easy

We have a large stock of Mattresses, Comforters and Blankets, carefully selected with the view of giving our patrons the best values possible and on our usual Easy Terms plan.

Combination Cotton and Excelsior Mattresses priced.....$4.00 to $9.75

Cotton Felt Mattresses, guaranteed not to lump or pull apart; priced.....$13.50 to $25.00

Comforters, priced.....$1.50 to $6.50

Blankets, priced.....$2.50 to $6.50

Use our Exchange Department if you have any article of furniture that you would like to trade for something new and up-to-date.

ORMANDY BROS.

FURNITURE

Cash or Credit Seven Years in St. Johns

"Wear Ever" Aluminum Special

Bring this ad. or coupon and get a 2-quart Wear Ever Saucepan which sells regularly at $1.35, for 89c. Good until Nov. 17th.

St. Johns Hardware Co.

Agency Goodyear Tires

KING PIP X

BIDS YOU TO

The Tenth Annual
National Apple Show
Spokane, Nov. 19th to 24th

Round-trip fare $14.95 via

Union Pacific System
THE SHORT LINE TO SPOKANE

Tickets on sale Nov. 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23
Return limit, Nov. 26, 1917

CITY TICKET OFFICE Washington at Third St
Broadway 4500 A-6121

The Apple Congress of the World

Local News.

Send in your news items.

Harry French has moved to Portland proper.

Merle Roe has been having a tussle with the grip the past few days.

The little child of Jesse Canright has recovered from a siege of diphtheria.

The monthly pay roll in St. Johns is now well over the quarter of a million mark.

Mrs. C. H. Thayer spent the week end at Corvallis with her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Gates.

S. H. Satterlee, the North Jersey street barber, took a day off Monday to nurse a case of the grip.

Work has commenced upon the new addition to the plant of the Peninsula Iron Works on Bradford street.

A bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guerra, 934 North Ivanhoe street, November 4th.

J. C. Bay and family of Hayward, Cal., have recently arrived in St. Johns and have taken up their residence at 134 Hartman street.

The Knights of Pythias will give a dance in Bickner Hall Friday evening, November 23rd. A good time is assured for all who attend.

A thief effected an entrance through a back window at the Fairchild Meat Market Tuesday night and stole some bacon and other meat.

Oregon ship yards seem assured of further government orders for modern ships, since a shaking up in the Federal Shipbuilding Board has taken place.

Mrs. I. J. Medved, who had been spending the past couple of weeks at Aberdeen, Wash., has returned to her home in St. Johns. She reports a very pleasant time.

Dr. E. R. Seely, who has recently associated himself with Dr. Gilstrap, has taken up his residence in the fine dwelling owned by the Peninsula Security Co., on the corner of Polk and South Ivanhoe street.

The foundation is being excavated for the new warehouse of the Portland Woolen Mills on Baltimore street between Decatur and Crawford streets. It will be two stories in height.

Do not forget to put stamps to the amount of three cents upon each letter you send outside of Portland and two cents upon each postal card. Letters inside the city limits still go for two cents.

Colonel Stevens, of Fort Mason, San Francisco, paid an official visit to the local woolen mills Monday, and expressed great pleasure and satisfaction with the goods being manufactured at the local plant.

Miss Eliza Cole, who has been at Woodburn for the past month or so, came to St. Johns to attend the funeral of Mr. Hurlbert on Sunday afternoon. She expects to remain in Woodburn until the first of the new year.

St. Johns had a most distinguished citizen last week in the person of Vice President Marshall, who made a talk to the employees at the local ship yard. Very few of our citizens knew of his coming.

Miss Arline Shaw was the soloist at the Baptist church on Sunday evening, singing with Mrs. Gabriel Pullin the duet, "I Waited For The Lord." Miss Shaw has a clear, high soprano voice and has much musical ability. She is a pupil of Mrs. Gabriel Pullin.

Practically every railroad in the west could be operated by electricity if laws were passed permitting development. Instead we burn up our coal and oil and throw away our water power, the only thing which use does not hurt.

Congregational church services: Sunday school 10 a. m. At 7:30 p. m. sermon by Rev. F. J. Meyer, "The Eagle's Nest" or "God's Method of Instruction." A message of the times in which we live. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Check your "Grippe" at Currins.

Electric Vacuum Cleaner for rent.—H. F. Clark.

If my work pleases you; please tell your friends. If not, tell me.—Rogers, 202 N. Jersey street.

Come in and get your favorite patriotic Records. Currins for Drugs.

"With Knives and Forks" will be Dr. Jones' subject at the evening service of the Christian church Sunday.

When in need of small articles, get them at the 5-10-15c store, St. Johns; in the Peninsula National Bank Building.

There are now more than 1000 men on the day shift and 300 men on the night shift at the local ship plant, it is said.

If you want hand picked Spitzenberg apples from the White Salmon valley, call at 529 S. Ivanhoe street after 5 p. m. The supply is limited. $1.25 cash per box undelivered.

St. Johns Fair Store, E. W. Foy, prop.; household utility supplies and general notions, 207 N. Jersey St. Highest quality goods at lowest prices. Next to Electric store.

One of the largest funerals ever held in St. Johns was held last Sunday in the Seventh Day Adventist church, over the remains of E. D. Hurlbert, one of St. John's pioneers.

There will be a regular stated communication, Doric Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Wednesday evening, Nov. 21. All visiting brothers welcome.—A. W. Davis, Secretary.

The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. will serve a ten cent tea at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Kelley next Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Everybody invited. You will enjoy the program, as you will the refreshments.

Dr. Ralph Otis Prey, of Sheridan, Oregon, spent Sunday with his old time friends, Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Mulkey. Dr. Prey was highly impressed with St. Johns, and was amazed at the progress and development that has taken place here since he visited this place a half dozen years ago.

Photographer Pratt had the misfortune to sever a middle toe and painfully cut his foot while splitting kindling Sunday. As the axe was about to fall it caught in a projection overhead, deflecting its course so that it fell upon the foot instead of the wood. Mr. Pratt is now ambling along with the aid of crutches.

Bids for furnishing and driving the piling for the foundation of the municipal grain elevator in North St. Johns will be opened at a special meeting of the commission of public docks today, Thursday, at 11 o'clock. Based on the procedure in other cases, the work should start in ten days. Rapid progress is being made on the work already under way.

Mrs. Honora Kilkenny died at her home, 411 North Jersey street, Monday, November 12th, aged 88 years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. C. W. Waterman, of Omaha, Neb., and two sons, Bernard and M. E. Kilkenny of this city. The funeral services take place this Thursday, morning at 9:30 at the St. Clement's church. Interment in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

The Men's Bible class, Philo Christo and Eleaneal classes of the Evangelical church held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Marey, 913 South Kellogg street, Tuesday evening. A splendid social time and refreshments were enjoyed. The attendance was large. The Sunday morning topic at the Evangelical church will be: "Anti-Christ." Evangelistic services in the evening.

Twenty patriotic women met in the library Friday afternoon, and organized a Red Cross Auxiliary. Gretchen Cormany was elected chairman, Mrs. T. T. Parker, treasurer and Mrs. Willis Moxon, secretary. We not only invite you, but feel safe to say that every woman in St. Johns will be only glad to do her bit in this great work. Watch Bonham & Currier's window for our first meeting.—Reporter.

Every day is a good day to Kodak. Currin Says So.

We outfit big and little shavers. Currin Says So.

Good second hand sewing machines for rent.—H. F. Clark.

For Sale—House and four lots on North Syracuse street. Call at this office.

Hair work. Switches made from combings. Mrs. Hill, 615 E. Tyler street.

For Sale—Five room bungalow. Will be sold at a bargain; terms. 805 S. Kellogg.

For Trade—Four fine lots and modern bungalow, well located, for farm. Inquire at this office.

Wanted—Man to grub stumps from lot in St. Johns, by day or contract. Call 1109 S. Syracuse.

Elderly lady wanted to work for room and board and small wages. Call 838 N. Jersey street.

Girl wants place to work after school hours for room and board and $5.00 per month. Call at this office.

Furnished Room for Rent—Suitable for two men, well ventilated; two beds and stove. Call 213 E. Leavitt.

Found—In Grocery Grabateria, a silver mesh purse. Owner can have same by calling, proving property and paying for ad.

French lessons given in private or classes, experienced teacher, born in France.—425 E. Mohawk street.

For Sale at a Bargain—Lots 1 to 4, in Block 6, Point View Addition. $750 cash buys them. Call at this office.

For Sale—Confectionery store doing a fine business. Good reason for selling. Good location. Call at this office.

I want to buy a good house and lot in St. Johns. Will turn in a 40 acre piece and pay balance in cash.—A. W. Davis.

For Sale—100 x 100, 3 room house, nice garden spot, Bull Run water, free wood, at Whitwood Court; $400, $200 cash, balance, terms.

For Sale—Two five room cottages, lot 100x100, East Charleston. Will be sold at a bargain. Call 718 East Richmond street.

Go to the Auto Repair Company, 207 South Jersey street, for your auto, motorcycle and bicycle repairs and supplies. Autos for hire. Phone Columbia 727.

Rabbits for Sale—New Zealand, Flemish Giant, Rufus Red, White Pinkeyes and Belgians. All ages and all prices.—C. R. Chadwick & Son, 219 N. Swenson.

For Sale at a Bargain—Modern 5 room house, lot 50x100, well located, bath, basement, electric lights, fruit. Inquire 805 S. Kellogg street.

Host—The Inn is historic. Almost everything here has its romantic legend. Guest—Tell me about this curious old ham sandwich. I'm sure it must have a quaint story attached to it.

Do not fail to hear Bishop Sumner at the High School Auditorium next Tuesday evening. It will be worth while. Read the High School items on first page for more concerning the event.

Hal J. Davis has successfully passed the examination as electrician of the first class, and most likely will be appointed instructor of the ship company at the U. S. Naval University Training grounds at Seattle, which will be pleasing news to Hal's many friends here.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Kelley, 225 Oswego street, next Monday afternoon at two o'clock. There will be some business to attend to, then all those who have a birthday in November will give a brief history of their life. The subject for the day is "The History of Thanksgiving." The roll will be called at this time and each member will respond by telling something about the origin of Thanksgiving. Come and help us out.—Reporter.

In the arrangements of funerals, twelve attendants are constantly at your service—three ladies and nine gentlemen. See ad. of Miller & Tracey. ad

A real Thanksgiving

Every time you go to the bank and make "another" deposit it is Thanksgiving, or should be; because your future is being made secure against want; your old age is made comfortable and happy, and those you love are being protected against poverty or humiliation. Come in and start a bank account with a little money and make a big Thanksgiving.

Peninsula National Bank

Officers: President P. AUTZEN, Vice President FRANK P. DRINKER, Vice President JOHN N. EDLERSSEN, Cashier CHARLES B. RUSSELL, Assistant Cashier STANTON L. BOMER, Assistant Cashier EDWARD R. MORRIS, Assistant Cashier. DIRECTORS: P. AUTZEN, THOS. AUTZEN, F. F. DRINKER, A. R. JONES, P. C. KNAPP, H. E. PENNELL, GRANT SMITH, J. N. EDLERSSEN. Member of Federal Reserve Bank INTEREST ON SAVINGS

Everything in Groceries

Awaits your order here. The quality and condition of our stock recommends in the opinion of our patrons. Our store is nicely kept. We accord you courteous attention and prompt deliveries is the watchword with us always. Get wise to why we advertise. The discriminating form a procession to our doors.

MUCK GROCERY

301 S. Jersey St. Phone Col. 118

A Hot Combination

WOOD--COAL!

We now handle coal as well as wood

St. Johns Lumber Co.

DR. HERBERT F. JONES

CHIROPRACTOR

311 NORTH JERSEY STREET

No charge for examination.

Res. Phone Columbia 690 Office Phone Columbia 97

DR. EVART P. BORDEN

DENTIST

Office and Residence 313 N. Hayes St.

TELEPHONE Columbia 477

EVERYTHING MODERN IN DENTISTRY

Furniture for the Fastidious

And furniture for the most exacting gk make up a goodly percentage of our stock. We cater to every want. An augmented assortment of fine sets or separate pieces for every room of the home. Our prices arouse a question of how such finely finished and finely made furniture can be produced for the money.

H. F. CLARK

THE FURNITURE MAN
400-402 S. JERSEY ST.

C. R. CHANEY

Transfer, Piano Moving, Etc.

Long Distance Hauling a Specialty

Phone Columbia 425 Office 215 S. Kellogg, Cor. John

St. Johns Lumber Co.

Wholesale and Retail

Columbia 131
C 1101

Foot of Burlington St.