An increase of at least forty per cent in value has accrued to the buildings in St. Johns that have been constructed for two years or longer. The reason for this is that in now costs almost fifty per cent more to build new than it did a couple of years ago. In selling property people should not overlook this fact.

Work is progressing at the elevator site in North St. Johns in a satisfactory manner. The low land is steadily being filled in, pile driving is in progress, excavating for the elevator is going on, and the work of cutting down the hill to connect the railroad track with the elevator system will soon be under way. Quite a number of men are employed on the project.

Lamont Flasher, resident of Linton, was seriously and probably fatally injured Monday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock, when a small tractor which he was driving was struck by a North Bank train at the West Oregon crossing near Linton. Flasher was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, where it was found that he had sustained serious injuries about the head. He is not expected to recover. He is about 30 years of age and unmarried. (Since the above was in type the young man has passed away).
