The Review wishes all a most happy and prosperous New Year.

Do not forget to make it 1918 after next Monday when dating your letter.

The days are beginning to get a little longer since December 21st, but so little that it is hard to notice so far.

R.L. Lavrack, the North Jersey street merchant, secured an egg that was of unusual size one day last week. It measured 7x8 1/2 inches in size.

Mrs. Stella Sorber has sold her home on Willamette boulevard to Mrs. Lura Halbert. The sale was made by Mrs. M. C. Soule.

R. W. McKeon, after spending some time in St. Johns, has returned to Eccla, Oregon, where he will probably remain for the balance of the winter. While here he aided Uncle Sam in rendering his services at the ship plant.

E. S. Wright, formerly a well known citizen of St. Johns, but now a prosperous merchant of Cooks, Wash., was a pleasant visitor at this office last Friday. Mr. Wright states that his son, Glenn, who was reported to be in France, is in Oklahoma yet, where he is in the aviation service.

J. P. Sumner, of 205 N. Edison street, had a curiosity on Christmas day in the shape of a live butterfly that he found in his woodpile. The insect was taken into the house and seems to endure climate as well in winter as in good old summer time.

Dr. Mary MacLachlan, formerly a popular physician of St. Johns, but for the past seven or eight years a well known physician of Portland, will probably go to France, as Dr. Foster has been authorized to send her there for a commission in the American Red Cross Society.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chambers entertained the Jolly 'Steen club in a very pleasant manner at their home on Fiske street Wednesday evening. Delicious refreshments were served. The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Vincent.

J. A. Conway, a laborer employed in the Grant Smith-Porter-Guthrie ship building plant here, died at St. Vincent's hospital Tuesday morning at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Conway fell 30 feet from the scaffold on which he was working and suffered a fractured skull and broken shoulder Monday morning. He is survived by his wife, who resides at No. 140 East Forty-seventh street.

Lester Hart and wife, of Los Angeles, Cal., recently arrived here and Mr. Hart has secured employment at the Foundation Shipbuilding plant. Mrs. Hart is the sister of Mrs. Roy Garlick. On Sunday the parents of Mrs. Garlick and her youngest brother and sister also arrived from Los Angeles and will make Portland their permanent home. All had their Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Garlick.

That ten days may elapse before a decision is given out by the G. M. Standifer Construction Corporation, as to the location of its steel shipyard, was intimated Wednesday. Since machinery orders have been placed and delivery cannot be made rapidly from the East at present, it is estimated there will be abundance time if construction of the yard is not undertaken for 30 days. So the site feature may rest until the latter part of this week, says the Portland Daily Abstract.

That another big steel shipyard is to be established in this district, and that contracts were being negotiated have already been secured from the government for 40 steel steamers, representing $25,000,000 and that the Smith & Watson Iron Works is behind the project, is the information contained in a report Saturday from apparently reliable sources. While officials of the Smith & Watson Company categorically deny there is anything to the report, other information is to the effect the deal has been concluded.

Electric Vacuum Cleaner for rent.—H. F. Clark.

Mrs. S. A. Mulkey returned last week from a pleasant visit in Southern Oregon.

Whole wheat flour, graham flour, 65 cents small sack.—Alex Scales. Phone Col. 210.

Following the week of prayer evangelistic services will be held in the Evangelical church.

J. Michael, of Culver, Oregon, is visiting his son, J. A. Michael, at 217 Oswego street.

Hugh Ward came down from Bremerton and spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Ada Ward.

Mrs. M. E. Simmons, of Independence, is visiting at the home of her son, E. A. Simmons.

Mrs. Maggie Wilson, of Independence, is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Simmons.

Lloyd Satterlee, wife and child are visiting at the home of Mrs. Satterlee's parents at Broadmead.

Rev. Mummy, of Corvallis, presiding elder, will speak at the Evangelical church, this Friday, evening.

Schlessers Meat Market has been embellished by the painter's brush. Lloyd Satterlee was the artist.

Calls answered promptly day or night, no extra charge. See ad. of Miller & Tracey, St. Johns branch office, Col. 888.

New Year's clean up prices on nuts. Walnuts 20c lb; pecans 20c lb; filberts, 20c lb; brazil 20c lb.—Alex. Scales, Phone Col. 210.

Do not overlook the watch meeting at the Evangelical church Monday night. It will be of an interesting nature, in which a good old time revival will be a feature.

St. Johns Fair Store, E. W. Foy, prop.; household utility supplies and general notions, 207 N. Jersey St. Highest quality goods at lowest prices. Next to Electric store.

Rev. C. P. Gates preached at the Evangelical church last Sunday evening. He departed for his home at Corvallis Wednesday, while his family will remain here for a few days more.

The Legal Advisory Board meets between the hours of 7 and 10 p. m. in the local city hall, where all desiring assistance in answering the questions in their Questionnaires may call in the evenings.

K. C. Couch was agreeably surprised the first of the week, when his brother, R. C. Couch, and wife of Guthrie Center, Iowa, arrived at the Couch home. The two brothers had not seen each other for 22 years, and the meeting of the two once more was most pleasing to each.

St. Johns now having three modern and thoroughly equipped dental parlors there can be no excuse for any person in this vicinity going elsewhere for dental work. In fact, there is good reason for persons living elsewhere to come here for first class, up-to-date and scientific work of a dental nature.

The Knights and Pythian Sisters tendered Chester A. Vincent a pleasing reception at the K. of P. hall last Friday evening. Chester related a number of interesting experiences he had encountered in his long sojourn in South America. Pleasant little talks were made by a number of those present. A fine line of refreshments was also a feature.

Plans for straightening the Columbia slough from the Willamette river to the Columbia river and dredging a channel 200 feet wide and 14 or more feet deep the entire distance, for the purpose of utilizing it as a commercial highway and for drainage of the entire peninsula have been outlined by City Engineer Laurgaard. Estimated cost of the project is $1,000,000. It is proposed that the federal government, the state government and the property affected bear the cost. The Port of Portland is also to share the expense.

Notice—A special meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security, St. Johns Council No. 2775, will be held in their hall Wednesday evening, Jan. 2nd, 1918, at 8 o'clock sharp. Matters of importance to be discussed and candidates to be initiated. Every member should be in attendance. Be on time so that the social can start promptly at nine.—Committee.

Dr. S. A. Mulkey has moved his dental offices to the rear upper floor of the Peninsula Security Co. building. A new window has been put in, and a splendid suite of dental rooms have been arranged. Every device and apparatus known to the dental science, apparently, may be found in Dr. Mulkey's office, and most conveniently arranged. It is doubtful if the city of Portland can show a better equipped dental establishment.

Another of the pleasant social dances given by the Knights and Ladies of Security will be held in Eagles Hall, Wednesday evening, Jan. 2nd. These dances are becoming quite popular with the dancing public, as a good time is always enjoyed. Sneed's excellent music will direct the dancers' feet and a special committee will see that you get acquainted if you come. All are invited.

Captain A. A. Muck reports that the St. Johns drive for Red Cross membership made the best showing of any district in Portland, more than 2200 having enrolled and more coming in right along. Mr. Muck states that special credit is due to the various workers, ministers and high school pupils, and also Clem Osman for faithful and successful work at the local ship plant. The leading local industries all registered 100 per cent, says Mr. Muck, and every one that could spare a dollar gave it freely.
