Local News.

It is still quite easy to make it 1917 in dating a letter.

Chas. L. Blanding, of Springfield, Oregon, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

Harry Smith is nursing a lacerated thumb, which accident befell him while at work recently.

A fine seven pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Gromachey Sunday, Dec. 30th.

A new barber shop has opened up in the room formerly occupied by Jeff Pitchford on Philadelphia street.

The dredge Columbia is busily engaged in excavating the basement for the elevator at North St. Johns.

The watch meeting in the Evangelical church Monday night was well attended and the services were of an interesting nature.

Hal J. Davis spent a five day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Davis, the past week. Hal is in the service of Uncle Sam at Seattle.

L. S. Wagner is hobbling along with a pair of crutches, the result of having a foot badly injured by lumber falling upon it while at work at the local ship plant recently.

Roy Stephens, son of J. A. Stephens, superintendent of the local dry docks, has gone to New York where he will enter the weather bureau department in the government service.

The many friends of Miss Ruth Canright will be interested to know of her marriage to Mr. Walter Klinefelter, of Payette, Idaho. Mr. Klinefelter is a prosperous rancher of that country.

The Knights of Pythias will give another of their delightful dancing parties in the skating rink the evening of Thursday, January 17th. Lovers of dancing should bear this in mind.

Geo. Lutz has sold his property on South Princeton street to Mrs. Sarah K. Jones, and Loren Cyrus has sold his property on East Polk street to Alex Hauser, of South Dakota. Both transactions were handled by A. W. Davis.

"How's your boy getting on at the training camp?" "Wonderful!" replied Farmer Appiecart. "I feel a sense of great security. An army that can make my boy get up early, work hard all day and go to bed early can do most anything."—Peoples' Home Journal.

In renewing his subscription to the Review, D. Tallman, former councilman of the city of St. Johns and well known citizen, but who now resides at Fairport, New York, says: "We are in the midst of a good blizzard now. How I do envy you Oregon folks. A little of this goes a good ways with me. All well as usual."

The Mother's meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Scott, 102 Central avenue, next Monday at two o'clock. There will be a reception to new members and to mothers who do not belong to the W. C. T. U. We expect to have a very interesting program, literary and musical. All cordially invited.—Reporter.

Vancouver is the most popular Gretna Green in the whole Northwest. In 1917 a total of 2116 couples were married in that city. Nearly every state in the Union, and Alaska, were represented at one time or another during the year, and as a result the minister's wives have profited exceedingly, it is said, as the pastors' wives usually get all fees their husbands receive for performing marriage ceremonies.

Miss Cormany tendered her resignation as Director of the Red Cross Unit, which was accepted, as she expects to leave the city for the South in a short time. Mrs. J. M. Shaw made a short address in which she voiced the appreciation of the members for Miss Cormany's faithful and efficient work. Mrs. Gillmore was elected to fill the vacancy, and Mrs. Dale was made vice chairman. The meetings, which are being well attended, will be continued at the Library every Wednesday.

"Shorty" Brewer, had the misfortune to lose his pet Oregon Sea "Piscis" last week. It was a red cat. We all weep with "Shorty."—Contributed.

Mrs. Frank A. Rice has opened a studio for instruction on violin and piano at 509 W. John street. Mrs. Rice is a graduate of Mt. Notre Dame in Cincinnati, Ohio, and has had experience in teaching and orchestra work. She wishes to announce that she will take a limited number of pupils, giving special attention to those wishing to enter the school orchestras.

A surprise party was given Josephine A. Gregory December 24th, at her home 411 E. Tioga street. Fifteen of her school mates were present, besides several neighbors. The afternoon was spent in a very pleasant manner. Among the presents she received was a fine piano presented by her parents. A number of other handsome presents were given the young lady by her friends. A fine lunch was served and a number of musical selections rendered.

Sixteen dead, hundreds requiring medical attention and thousands suffering acutely because of lack of sufficient fuel and food. Such was the situation in New York City the last day of the old year, as a result of the coldest weather ever known in the metropolis. Oregon weather was in most pleasing contrast. Weather almost mild enough to sit on the porch without any particular discomfort.

The Review office expects to be located in a new home after this week. The room two doors south of the postoffice has been acquired and there we will be pleased to greet all our old friends and patrons. The new room is a brick structure 25x60 feet in size, and by reason of a big skylight in the center, is admirably adapted for a printing establishment. So unless something unforeseen happens, the next issue of the Review will be issued from the new quarters.

Mary J. Scales, wife of Thos. Scales, and mother of the well known local merchant, Alex. S. Scales, passed peacefully to rest at her home, 608 Allegheny street, on New Years day. Some time ago, she was stricken with paralysis and had been an invalid ever since, when apoplexy developed, resulting in her death on the date stated above. Mrs. Scales was born in Ireland and came to St. Johns from Toledo, Wash., twelve years ago. She was aged 73 years, 7 months and 27 days. Surviving her are her husband, four sons and two daughters. The body was shipped to Centralia, Wash., for interment, the St. Johns Undertaking Co. in charge.

Laurel Lodge, I. O. O. F. received word Monday evening that Brother J. K. Martin, of St. Helens Lodge was in a dying condition at 1557 Oatman street, Portland, so reported by District Deputy Grand Master A. L. Sarber. Chaplain N. A. Gee and A. C. Gaines volunteered to go and render their services, and Lee Cormany took them over in his machine. Noble Grand G. W. Norene accompanying them. They found Brother Martin in a dying condition and Messrs. Gee and Gaines remained with him until the end, which occurred at 4 p. m. Tuesday morning. The remains were taken to the East Side Undertaking parlors under the direction of the General Relief Committee, of Portland. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon in the Odd Fellows plot in the Mt. Scott cemetery.

If you want job printing done don't overlook us. We want to do all the printing for St. Johns people. For commercial printing this office is well equipped and we know how to do it. Prices are lower than the same class of work is done in Portland, because our expenses are less. Any support along the printing line that any citizen or business man can give us will be highly appreciated. Please don't forget.
