Carl Juhnke, the expert shoe maker, was the first subscriber to enroll on our list in the new quarters, and George Munson was the first to renew his subscription.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edwards, 802 W. Richmond street, December 30, 1917, a seven pound son. It is a little war baby, as Mr. Edwards is now "somewhere in France."

Miss Hazel Garner, who has been visiting for the past two weeks in Aberdeen and Oakville, Wash., reports she is having a fine time and expects to remain for a while longer there.

Miss Vernal Moody, of Deseret, Utah, is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. A. W. Davis. She came from Utah to get married to her sweetheart in Camp Lewis.

The St. Johns library has on exhibition a collection of posters which should be of interest to commercial and art students as well as business men. The exhibit includes a number of beautiful Italian posters.

The Knights and Ladies of Security held their regular business meeting Wednesday evening. A good attendance was had and a class of six was given initiatory work. A number of applications were read and the applicants duly voted in. They will be given the degree at the next meeting, January 16th.

Joseph A. Crouch, formerly boss carder at the Portland Woolen Mills, who has appointed Government Inspector of Textiles in September, writes that he is doing some traveling, but has struck no town that can hold a candle to Portland, and no climate like that of old Oregon. J. A. has been made traveling inspector throughout Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Tennessee and Missouri, with headquarters at St. Louis.

You have seen the new war books reviewed in the magazines and papers? They may now be had at the St. Johns library: Bainsfather—Bullets and Billets; Benjamin—Private Gaspard; Chomondy—Christian; Dawson—Carry On; Empey—Over the Top; Hargrave—At Sula Bay; Hay—All in It; Hay—The Oppressed English; MacQuarrie—How to Live at the Front; Seeger—Letters and Diary of Alan Seeger.

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Herwick, 1025 S. Jersey street, Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in singing after which light refreshments were served. The center attraction of the evening was little Miss Shirley Larsen. Those present were: Mrs. Inez French, Mrs. Laura Isabelle, Mrs. Vivian Rankin, of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Dora Larson, Miss Helen French, Miss Esther Rood, Miss Hazel Linquist, Miss Ethel Mathews, Fred, Susie and Mary Herwick.

A truly great service in every way was the union meeting of the Baptist and Methodist last Sunday evening. The fine large audience was swept and melted into one with oldtime power. Do people of St. Johns appreciate how rare a treasure we have in our midst in the truly soulful songs and interpretations of things spiritual in the world of music as rendered by Mrs. Gabriel Pullin? Mrs. Pullin will sing at the Union meeting at the Methodist church Sunday evening, January, 13th. Another great service is expected.—Reported.
