An exchange wants to know why it is that many physicians prescribe large bottles of medicine for their patients when it is expected that only a few doses will be required, and smaller bottles where the probabilities are that more than one bottle will be needed.

There was a good attendance at the Red Cross auxiliary on Wednesday. Mrs. Harrington gave a talk on the conserving of fats. Instruction in war time cookery next Wednesday at 2 p. m. Every one that can sew or knit invited to attend the Red Cross meetings.—Reported.

"And please, Lord," said little Dick, adding a postscript to his evening prayer, "make my brother Johnny a better boy." "Looky here," growled Johnny, who had just finished his petition to the throne of grace, "if you don't quit knockin' me to the Lord, I'm goin' to paste ye in the eye."

A. W. Davis reports the sale of a house and lot at St. Johns Heights, owned by Mr. Cyrus to Mr. Hanson; house and lot on Chicago street owned by Mr. Erickson, to Mr. Nickerson; Northern Hill acres owned by Matt Rank, to Mr. Adams. These transfers were made within the past two weeks.

G. E. Grice and son, Thomas, of Kennick, Idaho, arrived in St. Johns last Friday. He is the son of our well known townsman, Thos. Grice, and is an expert mill right. The local ship plant has secured his services and he will remain here permanently, sending for his family when he has secured suitable habitation.

An open meeting of the Knights of Pythias will take place Friday evening, February 22, when Grand Vice Chancellor Johnson, of Astoria will deliver an address. The honor roll flag will be dedicated, a fine program will be rendered, followed by refreshments and music. It will be a celebration of the origination of Order also. A special invitation is extended for all Knights of Pythias and their ladies to attend.

Rev. Chas. Hay, of the East Side church, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday both morning and evening at the St. Johns Baptist church. All Baptist strangers in the city and the public are cordially invited. Mrs. Viola Johnson will sing at the morning service accompanied by Miss Nettie Leona Foy, who has charge of all the music. Special music in the evening. Come and worship with us.—Reporter.

"The Call of Christ to Me" is the title of a pageant to be given by the ladies of the Christian Women's Missionary Society at the Christian church, Sunday evening, February 17th. A fine program will be rendered. Admission free.

It has been suggested that those persons who rent homes in St. Johns and work in Portland exchange dwellings with those who live in Portland and work in St. Johns. The chief difficulty with this idea is that those who live here for any length of time do not want to live anywhere else. Perhaps, however, there may be some not averse to the plan, provided the exchange be mutually agreeable.

The local Woolen Mills has started on the construction of a large addition to their already immense plant here. The new addition will be 140x140 in size, of brick construction and two stories in height. When completed this will be the largest Woolen Mill west of Cleveland, Ohio. St. Johns is, indeed, fortunate in having this splendidly managed and progressive institution within its borders.

The Rug That Pleases

the housewife, is the rug that not only has an artistic design, and is rich in coloring, but one which will withstand the ordinary wear and tear of household life. To buy a rug and then have the colors fade; and the rug get threadbare in a short time is a great disappointment. Buy of a house whose reputation for handling only the best is well known.
