Local News.

Rapid progress is being made in the new dock and machine shop at the local shipyards.

Chairman Hurley announces that Oregon will be allowed to build ships for Norway and Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Currin have returned from a very pleasant sojourn in the various cities of California.

Mrs. A. M. Mowrey motored to St. Johns from her home at Boring on a business trip the latter part of last week.

John W. Jacques, a former well known citizen of St. Johns, died at the Old Soldier's Home at Roseburg the first of the week.

New subscribers are enrolling right along. There is no reason why the Review should not be a weekly visitor in every home in St. Johns.

The local realty dealers wear a prosperous and satisfied countenance these days. Property is on the move and all report business fine.

Lack of ships prevent delivery of wheat, flour and canned milk to allies, and here is where farmers are interested in speeding up ship building.

For shipbuilders: The International Marine Engineering is one of the new magazines added to the magazine list at the St. Johns library this year.

Thomas Condon, a former well known St. Johns business man, has returned from an extended stay in Chicago, and will make his home in Portland.

Elmer Sneed, violinist and teacher, is planning to present a number of his pupils in violin recital in the near future. Announcement of time and place will appear later.

The Nation's Business—A service for business men, published monthly by the Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. You may have its use without charge at the St. Johns library.

Owing to the marked increase in business at the local post office, a lady clerk has been added to the force, who will devote part of each day to aid in the work.

Rev. Robt. G. Harbutt, of Southern California, will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday evening, March 17th. Rev. Harbutt is said to be an eloquent minister, and a large attendance is desired.

Note the new ad. of the Lavrack Grocery in this issue. Mr. Lavrack is enjoying a fine business, which is increasing right along. We welcome him to the Review's list of steady advertisers.

Is your pruning done? Consult Bailey's Pruning Book at the St. Johns library. There is no better authority. The library has over 40 books on various phases of gardening, and the Garden Magazine for keeping up to date.

The Peninsula Security Co. this week took out permits for the erection of two residences on Oswego street, between Hartman and Swenson streets, E. A. Simmons and H. C. Finch, builders. The cost of each is $1000.

The hospital project for St. Johns is not taking form very rapidly. The need has not lessened, but financial enthusiasm seems to be a little lacking. It is expected, however, that the hospital will materialize before the end of the year.

Dr. E. J. Gambee entered Uncle Sam's service last Friday, when he departed for Fort Stevens. Dr. F. P. Schultz has associated himself with Dr. E. E. Gambee, the title of the firm name hereafter being Gambee & Schultz.

Jacob Hahn has taken out a permit to erect a residence on South Edison street between Reno and St. Johns avenue, costing $2000.

We can arrange to build you a house on your plans on your vacant lot, or we can sell you a new house built to suit you on easy terms.—S. C. Cook, 402 N. Jersey street.

As an illustration of how a perfectly managed institution sometimes grows, just take a look at the Peninsula Bank statement in this issue. It shows a gain of almost half a million in one year. St. Johns has reason to feel proud of this institution.

Rev. E. C. Cofer, of the Highland Baptist church, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. All the members are urged to be present. No services in the evening. Anyone wishing to unite with us in attending the White Temple services in the evening, will be welcome.—Reporter.

First Aid will continue at the urgent request of the members of First Aid class. Miss Cholhar has consented to complete the work as originally outlined. For this purpose use of the library room has been secured for every Monday evening at 7:15 for the next five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice, of Mason City, Iowa, are guests at the home of their son, F. A. Rice, president of the First Trust & Savings Bank, of St. Johns. They left Iowa about three months ago, and since that time they have been sojourning in Southern California. They will probably remain in St. Johns for some time.

A thief entered the home of Mr. Peterson at 707 North Wilamette boulevard Sunday evening while the family was at church, and stole a lady's gold watch, $2.50 in a purse, a loaded revolver and a bunch of keys. It is said that there is a suspicion as to who the guilty party is, and he may be apprehended within a short time.

The first road construction to be undertaken this year probably will be the construction of a road to the municipal freight and grain terminal below St. Johns. Plans for the roadway have been prepared already. The indications are that the sum of $10,000 set aside in the road budget for the highway will be insufficient.

Exceptional Opportunity for Roomers or Boarding—9 room modern house with 5 fine bed rooms upstairs and 1 down, front room, dining room, kitchen, bath and full basement on lot 66x200 with 7 or 8 fine cherry and other fruits. Close to Peninsula Mill, Shipyard and Cooperage plant. Price $2300 clear; $250 cash, $25 per month, includes interest.—A. W. Davis.

Ormandy Bros., have had a large, handsome sign placed upon the roof of their furniture emporium on N. Jersey street. It is a well executed piece of work. This enterprising firm is enjoying a big business, which is constantly increasing, gained through their strong faith in the efficiency of advertising, in connection with unfailing courtesy and handling furniture of merit at prices most reasonable.

A fine musicale was given Friday evening, March 8th, at the home of Miss Georgia Rich, where a number of students and friends gathered. Mrs. Helene Ogsbury Williams sang a group of English and Italian songs. Mrs. Williams has a beautiful soprano voice of rare beauty and sweetness. The three violin solos of Mr. Elmer Sneed were greatly enjoyed. Miss Georgia Rich rendered two numbers and also accompanied the soloists. Mrs. J. E. Williams presided over the punch bowl during the evening.

If my work pleases you; please tell your friends. If not, tell me.—Rogers, 202 N. Jersey street.

Harry Imboden, proprietor of the St. Johns Cash Market, gave an interesting demonstration before the Domestic Science Class of James John High yesterday on the value of and how to select the various cuts of meat. Harry is an artist in meat cutting and the demonstration was highly appreciated. The various cuts of meats used in the demonstration are now on sale at his market.

"The True Shepherd Heart" is the sermon subject at the Methodist church Sunday morning. The revival services are starting in well with Revs. Jasper and Poor assisting. Prof. Isaacs, a song evangelist and sweet singer of Israel, is expected for Sunday services on the 17th and 24th and intervening evenings except Saturday. God reigns and St. Johns is feeling His presence. Let us worship God.—Reported.

Prof. and Mrs. C. A. Fry entertained the members of the Jolly Steen club at their home on East 40th street Wednesday evening, the St. Johns members making the trip by autos. The evening was spent in a delightful manner in which the ever popular game of 500 played a principal part. The first prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evens and the second prize was captured by Prof. and Mrs. C. H. Boyd. Delicious refreshments were served.

H. F. Clark, the well known furniture man, has purchased the stock of the St. Johns Furniture store on Philadelphia street, and has taken possession of the same. It is Mr. Clark's intention to later on merge the new purchase with his big stock at the corner of Charleston and Jersey streets, but for the time being will operate the two stores. Manager Mariett states that the reason for selling the store, which was enjoying a good and increasing patronage, is owing to the fact that one of his partners is now in Uncle Sam's Naval service, and the probabilities are that he will soon be called to the service. Mr. Clark has gained quite a reputation as a successful furniture man, and is doing a large and steadily growing business.
