The Red Cross workers of St. Johns assembled between two and three tons of clothing for the Belgians. There was about eighteen present at the last meeting, Wednesday. Eleven beautifully knit sweaters were turned in and nine pairs of socks. It is desired that more interest be taken in the Red Cross meetings. The attendance should be much greater than in the case. Right now especially is the time when interest should not be allowed to lag. Let all who possibly can do so, attend.

WHY NOT BANK THE MONEY YOU WASTE?

EXTRAVAGANCE is sinful—it is waste. If you put that same money in the bank, some day you will be able to indulge yourself in those luxuries without missing the money. A bank account grows—you will be interested in seeing it grow. You don't need those extravagances. You will need that money some day. Have it safe in our bank.
